ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is the duty of the researcher to thank all those who were instrumental in taking up the thesis entitled IN SEARCH OF DERRIDA’S INTELLECTUAL FOREFATHER: READING DERRIDEAN DECONSTRUCTION AGAINST THE BACKDROP OF NAGARJUNA’S PHILOSOPHY.

First and foremost I would like to express my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to Prof. V. Mani my Guru with whose guidance and support, this research work took off. I place on record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. V.B. Vinod, Associate Professor, Department of Humanities, The National Institute of Technology, Tiruchirappalli, whose able guidance and help this dissertation has been completed. I am thankful to him for his efficient supervision, scholarly criticism, and valuable suggestions in the organisation and arrangement of ideas.

I do thank all those who helped me directly and indirectly in the successful completion of this thesis, my colleagues in the Department of English, Thiagarajar College, Madurai and my family especially my wife, who relieved me of my duties, by shouldering all the family responsibilities on her own.

Special thanks to Rev. Fr. Paulraj, SDB, who allowed me to utilise the resources of at the Salesian Philosophy College library at The Retreat, Yercaud and to Dr. G. Banumadhi, my colleague who patiently read through my thesis and offered guidance and help.
