Acknowledgements

At the outset, I would like to thank the staff at the State Archives in Madras, Calicut, Bombay, Trivandrum and Cochin, particularly Dr. Sundara Raj, Mr. Varghese and Mr. Sukesh for all the help extended to me. I am grateful to the management of Malayala Manorama for granting me the permission to go through the microfilms of the back issues of the newspaper. I would also like to thank the staff at Conemera Library - Madras, Library of CDS - Trivandrum, University Library and the Library of the Department of History - Calicut, University Library - Trivandrum, Public Library - Kottayam, Bombay University Library at Fort and Kalina Campus, Madras University Library, and Sahitya Academy Library - Thrissur.

I would also like to thank all the faculty members of the School of Social Sciences, Dr. Nissar Ahmed, Dr. Raju S. Mr. Sanal Mohan and Ms. Radhika for all the help and support they had extended through these long years of the study. The discussions I had with them had always been very useful in the course of the study. I would also like to remember Dr. Muralidharan M who was my guide initially. The office staff of the School and the librarian, Ms. Jayashree had always been helpful. Neither can I forget the support, help and encouragement given to me by my friends at the school particularly Devika J, Dinesan V. Geethadevi T K and my colleagues at the Sree Sankaracharya University, Kalady. The support from Ani and Sudhakaran had been immeasurable.

I am grateful to my supervisor Dr. Rajan Gurukkal, Professor and Director, School of Social Sciences, who guided me through this work. His suggestions and support, whenever needed, were of immense help to me.

I would like to remember my friends and relatives at Chempu, Madras, Calicut and Trivandrum for their support during my trips for data collection. As regards the legal aspects of the study, I was helped by my brother-in-law, Saju Thomas and my uncle, Thomas A V, both advocates by profession.

Typing and formatting of this thesis has been done largely at home. The help given by Geejo, Deepak, Surya, Ranju, Vinju, Paul Varghese, Rexy and Karthika DTP Centre, Kalady are to be commented.

My family has been a source of immense strength and support. But for their encouragement, prodding and pepping up this work would not have been complete. Appa, Amma, Pappa, Mummy, Geejo, Deepak and Sreya have always been at my side co-operating and adjusting to the demands made on my time during the course of study.

I would like to dedicate this thesis to my family for being the wind beneath my wings.
