ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The completion of the study gives me an opportunity to express my foremost gratitude to my Supervisor, Prof. (Mrs.) Kishwar Shabbir Khan. She envinced deep interest in the study and spared her valuable time for guidance, discussions, comments and advice despite her busy academic schedule and many preoccupations. I have benefited a great deal from her deep insight into the subject. I am profoundly grateful for the encouragement and help, I received from her right from the inception to completion of this work.

Dr Kishore Singh, my co-supervisor, from NISTADS has been a source of great encouragement throughout the course of the study and made many valuable suggestions. I owe a lot indeed to Dr. Ashok Jain, Director NISTADS, who has not only provided guidance and counciling throughout the course of the study, but has also been a source of inspiration and encouragement.

I must sincerely acknowledge the kindness of Prof. A. Rahman, former Director NISTADS, for providing me an opportunity of availing research fellowship of CSIR at NISTADS. But for this financial help the present dissertation would not have seen the light of the day. Academic advice given by Prof. Rahman during the early period of my study has been truly valuable.
I must record my sense of gratitude to Prof. Shabbir Khan for his valuable suggestions and encouragement throughout the course of the work. I would also like to express my thanks to Prof. M.A. Raz and Prof. Idris Qureshi for their sustained support and encouragement throughout the study.

The study has also been benefited from comments, suggestions and reactions of, among others, Prof. Anirudh Gupta, Dean SIS, JNU; Prof. Dalip Singh, former Head, Department of African Studies, Delhi Univ.; Prof. R.R. Ramchandani, Director, East African Studies Centre, Bombay University.

I also duly acknowledge the cooperation and courtesy of officials of Ministry of Commerce, Ministry of External Affairs, officials of Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI), National Small Industries Corporation (NSIC), National Industrial Development Corporation (NIDC), National Research and Development Corporation (NRDC), Federation of Indian Export Organisation (FIEO), Railway India Technical and Economic Services (RITES), Indian Railway Construction Company Ltd. (IRCON), Project and Equipment Corporation India Ltd (PEC), Hindustan Machine Tools-International (HMT-I) and Export and Import Bank (EXIM Bank) for providing relevant information and statistics which have been used in the study.

I am deeply indebted to the National Institute of Science Technology and Developmental Studies (NISTADS),
