Acknowledgement

I commence with the holy name of Allah whose benevolence and beneficence enabled me to wind up this work.

I acknowledge

My supervisor, Prof. Noor Mohammad for his proficient guidance, conscientious scrutiny, abounding encouragement and congenial assistance. In times of my tryst with destiny, he stood beside me as a godsend source of hope, affection, care and advice. He abbreviated big clauses of doubt and fear and mentored me. Nothing but his help, faith and continuing support has salvaged me from darkness.

An Angel for her unobtrusive benefaction of all necessary facilities and also for her unconditional beneficence that microvilli-ed my capacity to fight back. I would not have been able to achieve the same without her unevenly support and guidance throughout my work.

I pay my sincere thanks to my teachers for constant encouragement during the entire work.

My friends and colleagues who have always provided me with moral support and have been there with me at all the times.

Last but not least I am indebted to my parents who had provided me with their love and affection throughout the entire journey of my life and laid the foundation of my education.
