This work would not have been possible without the help that I received from different quarters. I am particularly grateful to my supervisor, Prof. J.B. Battacharjee of N.E.H.U., for his constant encouragement and guidance.

I am thankful to the Director of the National Archives of India, New Delhi. Sri A.H. Chaudhary of the Assam State Archives, Dispur was of valuable assistance. I am grateful to the librarians of the Tea Board, Calcutta, National Library, Calcutta, Arunachal Pradesh Library, Itanagar, N.E.C., Shillong, District Library, Guwahati, Directorate of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, Anthropological Survey of India, Shillong, Geological Survey of India, Shillong, Assam Oil Company, Digboi, Coal India, Margherita, National Productivity Council, Tinsukia, North-Eastern Hill University and Gauhati University for allowing me access to the materials in their custody. My thanks are also due to the authors whose works have been consulted and utilised.

My family members have extended unfailing support and encouragement throughout the period. My children have often had to bear with my heavy schedules. This they did ungrudgingly and I appreciate their consideration. I am largely indebted to my husband, Dr. B.M. Goswami, who has always been a source of undiminished criticism and sustenance. Thanks are also due to my parents for their support and encouragement. I am grateful to Sri P.K. Rana, who labouriously deciphered my hand written manuscript and then typed the work.
