ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am full of gratitude for my supervisor, Dr. Noor Mohammad, Reader, Department of Sociology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, who has given me unstinted help and guidance all along, which only could bring the present thesis to its completion. Of course the research was initiated and encouraged by Dr. M.M. Siddiqi, my earlier supervisor, who later had to leave for Saudi-Arabia on a teaching assignment. I also deeply appreciate the help and constant moral support given by Dr. Mrs. Shad Bano Ahmad, Chairperson, Department of Sociology.

It gives me great pleasure in expressing my thanks to Prof. M. Zaheer and Prof. S.N. Sinha of the Department of Preventive and Social Medicine for their generosity and kindness in providing me all the facilities at their command.

I acknowledge the help given by Dr. Syed Badrul Hasan, Lecturer, and Dr. Vivek Adhish, both from Department of Preventive and Social Medicine, who were always ready with their valuable suggestions. I am also grateful to Dr. M. Younus, a former member of the same Department, presently in Saudi-Arabia, who during his visit to U.K. on Commonwealth Scholarship, supplied and identified the related books and articles for the present study.
My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. S. Sultan Akhtar, presently Chairman of the Department of Psychology for his valuable suggestions.

I also acknowledge Dr. Syed Gauhar Alam Rizvi, and Mr. Zaheerul-Islam, Department of Statistics for their help in analysing the data, and Mr. S.K. Singh, Section Officer, Faculty of Social Sciences, who always inspired and in fact prodded to complete my thesis.

I am also thankful to Dr. Youg Bhargava and Mr. Mohd. Azam for their assistance in my present study.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not thank Mr. S.C. Gupta and Mr. M.B.L. Johri who with their all preoccupations, found time to type my thesis.

In the last I am very much thankful to all my respondents who gave their valuable time in replying to my lengthy questionnaire of the present study.

SYED MOHD. IMRAN