ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Gratitude is duty which ought to be brought. It must be born with men or else all the obligations in the world will create it”

Lord Halifax

First and foremost I bow before the divine power, the Almighty, who endowed me with his endless blessing and strength to accomplish the present work without any obstacle and helping me during every bit of this assigned task, and making its completion a memorable experience.

Words have always failed to express the magnitude of feelings, particularly when it comes to acknowledging the help rendered. I take this humble opportunity to express my sincere and heartful gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Dr. Bhupinder Singh Virk, Assistant Professor, Department of Law, Punjabi University, Patiala, without whose guidance, motivation, knowledge and hard work this work could be brought to its present form.

My warmest thanks goes to Prof. (Dr.) Pushpinder Kaur Dhillon, Head of the Department of Law, Punjabi University, Patiala, for the constructive suggestions given by her at various stages towards the completion of this thesis.

I owe thanks to Prof. Paramjeet Singh, Department of Law, Punjabi University, Patiala for suggestions rendered by him in the research work.

I thankfully acknowledge the cooperation extended to me by the librarian and the library staff. The non-teaching staff and specially Shri Daljeet Singh need special mention for the help extended by him in my Ph.D. work.
I wish to put on record my sincere thanks to the staff of libraries of Punjabi University, Patiala, Panjab University, Chandigarh, Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, Meerut University, Meerut.

I am extremely thankful to my father in law Sh. V. K. Gupta, my mother in law Smt. Vimla Gupta, my husband Mr. Vipul Garg, Mrs. Shalini Gupta my sister in law & Mr. S. N. Goel, my brother in law, Dr. Raj Kumar Gupta, my brother in law, my Parents, my brother and my cousin Mr. Arvind Gupta for the motivation provided towards the completion of this work and making me understand the true meaning of life.

The working environment was enjoying due to naughty activities of my daughter Apoorva and son Bhavya. For a long period they were deprived of my love and care, to some extent, due to my involvement in the research work.
