ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost thanks to Almighty for bestowing me His kind blessings.

I owe a great debt of gratitude and sincere thanks to my supervisor Dr. M. E. A. Mondal, Sr. Lecture, Department of Geology, A.M.U. for the much needed guidance and support during the entire course of the present study. It was his encouragement and keen interest in the subject, which led to the completion of this study. He has been a source of constant inspiration to me.

I wish to thank Prof. M. Raza, the Chairman, Department of Geology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for providing the facilities during the period of this work.

I owe a sense of gratitude towards Dr. N. Ibotombi and Dr. A.L.K. Lahkar, Lecturers, Department of Geology, D.M. Collage of Science, Imphal, who encouraged me all the time.

I am thankful to Dr. A. H. M. Ahmad, Reader, Department of Geology for discussion and providing me petrographic facilities in his sedimentary laboratory. Fruitful help and discussions with Dr. M. Massoor Alam and Dr. S. A. Rashid are thankfully acknowledged. I would also like to extend my thanks to Dr. M. S. Khan.

My sincere thanks are due to Prof. R.A.S. Kushwaha and Dr. Soibam Ibotombi, Associate Professor, Department of Earth Science, Manipur University, Imphal for their support and valuable discussion during the field survey.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Mrs. Banu Devi and her sons and also the villagers who cooperated me during the field survey and collection of samples.

Thanks are also due to my friends Abdullah and Hamidullah for their encouragement and support at various stages during the study. I also thank my friend
Suniti and seniors Suraj, Neelofar and Huma Jamal. Thanks are due to my junior Adil Sareer for his help in a number of ways while carrying out this work.

Gratitude is expressed to non-teaching staff for their help during preparation of thin sections, for providing library facilities and for extending the geochemical laboratory facilities of the Department of Geology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh.

The financial assistance received from the UGC is gratefully acknowledged.

Especial thanks are due to my uncles, my sisters, brother and brother-in-law for their constant encouragement and support while carrying out this work.

I am indebted to my parents, Mr. Salam Joykumar Singh and Mrs. Salam Chandani who in a number of ways provided me the wherewithal. I dedicate this effort to them.
