ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Research helps to bring out new facts and create new theories etc. which develops a particular branch of social science or law, to further advance and accelerate growth of society. It is a systematized effort to gain new knowledge. One needs constant guidance, supervision and support in order to derive out a handful of pearls from its depth. The completion of this work is the outcome of able guidance and active co-operation received from various sections during the course of the study. It gives me pleasure to write down few thankful words as an expression of gratitude to all those who extended their help to me.

First and foremost, I bow before the Almighty, who bestowed me with His endless blessing and strength to accomplish the present work without any obstacle and helping me during every bit of this assigned task and making its completion a memorable experience.

I fall short of words in expressing immense gratitude for my idol and revered Supervisor, Dr. Gurpreet Kaur Pannu, Reader, Department of Law, Punjabi University, Patiala for being my dynamic guide, caring mentor and torch bearer. This work is the result of her tireless and ever-stimulating guidance. Her constant guidance, encouragement and keen personal interest inspired me to work more diligently and efficiently. I am deeply indebted to her for her comments on each chapter which led me to see and understand the problem and solution in better way. She clarified the legal concepts related with my research work in a matchless way which became very useful for me. This work in the present form has become possible with her critical examination, innovative approach and encouraging words.

I am much indebted to Professor Dr. Ms. P.K.Dhillion, Head, Department of Law, Punjabi University, Patiala for her inspiration, encouragement and co-operation in this academic pursuit.

I feel deep pleasure to put on records my thanks to Professor Dr. Charanjeet Singh, Professor Dr. Manjit Singh Nizzar, and other members of the faculty.
The most special indebtedness, heartfelt thankful and gratitude goes to my Father Mr. Dharam Pal Angrish, President, Punjab Trade Union Federation and mother Mrs. Kamla Devi, they have taught me that there are no shady trees in the path of success and there is no substitute of hard work. I owe my existence and survival to them. Whatever I am is all because of them. My niece Kriti and Nephew Bhupesh who helped me a lot from time to time in my work.

I wish to put my sincere thanks to the staff of libraries of Punjabi University, Patiala, Punjab University, Chandigarh, Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, International Labour Organization, New Delhi, Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi, V.V.Giri National Labour Institute, Noida (UP) and Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra.

I shall fail if I do not mention that I am also indebted to Dr. Gurpal Singh, Director, Bhai Gurdas College of Law, Sangrur and my fellows, who helped me in my this study.

I have been the beneficiary of many forms of encouragements from my distinguished colleagues, friends and well wishers. The list is not exhaustive but I should avail the opportunity to express my gratitude and thanks to all of them.

Jyoti Angrish