ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To express my gratitude to all those who supported me during the stages of my life climaxing in my research studies is very difficult in this limited space. However, I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere and grateful thanks to them.

It is my primary duty to convey my heartfelt thanks to the Lord for his inspiration on me by creating self-confidence, courage and constant attempts which made this thesis, a successful one.

My heartfelt thanks to Prof.Dr.C.SWAMINATHAN, Vice Chancellor, Periyar University, Salem for providing me permission to pursue my research work in this esteemed university.

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr.K.ANGAMUTHU, Registrar, Periyar University, Salem and other Authorities of Periyar University, for having given me permission to do research in PRIMS for their full support and encouragement for the successful completion of my research work.

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr.A.ELANGOVAN, Controller of Examinations (I/C), Periyar University, Salem for having given me permission to do research in PRIMS for their full support and encouragement for the successful completion of my research work.

To the distinguished Prof.Dr.N.RAJENDHIRAN, Professor-Cum-Director, Periyar Institute of Management Studies (PRIMS). I am deeply indebted and no words would suffice to express my gratefulness. As a first Director of this Business School since inception, with his academic excellence and administrative acumen, he has nurtured this institution to a level of great professionalism and respectability in this region.
I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my distinguished research guide and mentor Dr.V.R.PALANIVELU, Associate Professor, Periyar Institute of Management Studies (PRIMS), Periyar University, Salem for his matchless interest and invaluable guidance for the successful completion of this research work. I sincerely thank him for being a constant source of encouragement and resourcefulness throughout my period of research from conception to completion. Writing thesis is an intensively individual, private and lonely affair. It is a very strenuous phase with lot of self doubts overwhelmed by the sheer volume of the material. It is in this crucial phase, he gave tremendous support – by way of proof reading, content checking, context matching and smoothening the bumps along the way.

If this thesis has seen the light of the day in its current form, the entire credit goes to him for his gentle guidance and firm supervision with a sense of perfection. His clarity on the subject matter and his focus on - what to amplify, what to leave out and what to reduce, helped me to deliver this dissertation confirming to the rigors of research standards.

To the triumvirate of PRIMS faculty members: Dr.T.Sarathy, Dr.J.Senthil Velmurugan, Dr.P.Thirumoorthi and Dr.R.Subramaniya Bharathy - I doff my hat with great respect and admiration for their professional support. They unhesitatingly gave me their time and effort, to help me to fit in this milieu.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr.N.SUBRAMANIAN, University Librarian and the library staffs of Periyar University for providing me all necessary resources available in library for successfully carrying out my research.

To all the Subject Experts, Exporters and Consultants who took part in this survey - a bouquet with heart full of gratitude wrapped with warmest wishes, for the immensity of their contribution, as without their involvement there would be literally nothing to write home about. It is their interactions, their discussions, their Sharings, their suggestions, their insights, their questions which literally sustained and shaped this project through various iterations of rethinking, reframing and revalidating – finally leading to the blossoming of this Study.

To my entire fellow Research Scholars, from PRIMS Department who were my cheer leaders, they helped me at various points of time

I am extending my thanks to office staffs of Periyar Institute of Management Studies (PRIMS), Periyar University, Salem, for their help and support in making this thesis.

I am very much indebted to Dr.N.K.SHANMUGAM, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, Kandaswami Kandars College, P.Velur for providing me valuable inputs for the successful completion of my research work.

I express my heartiest gratitude to P.SASIKALA, P.KAVINA and V.P. KOWRANTH for their continuous encouragement to pursue the research work.

To my family, my father Mr.K.DURAIYAMY, my mother Mrs.ANNAPURANAM - no words can ever come close enough to the outpouring of gratitude except to say: ‘It is a great honour to live with them and grandeur opportunity to celebrate my life around them’.

I record my deep sense of love and gratitude for my daughter S.PONNDHIYA SRI, my son S. PONNSURIYA and my beloved wife Mrs.M.GAYATRI. She gave me spark to do Ph.D, without whose endless care and guidance, my dream would not have come into a reality. Her selfless gestures at this crucial stage helped me retain my sanity to keep on chiseling at my thesis. I am highly indebted to her. She pitched in numerous ways in this journey towards Doctoral credential.

I am extending my thanks to office staffs of Research and Development Department, Periyar University, Salem, for their help and support in helping me with the various procedures.
I am extending my thanks to M.MURALI, Aryaa Infostat Technologies, Erode, for his timely guidance and assistance in the research work, especially for the analysis of the data and working on the statistical packages of research tools.

I am filled with a genuine attitude of gratitude, for all who have made this thesis a reality – because gratitude is much more than saying thank you. The real challenge lies in putting this gratitude into action, by making meaningful and valuable contribution, beginning now.
