CONTENTS

Chapter I
Introduction 1 - 6
i) Choice of the subject 1 - 3
ii) Scope of inquiry types of products covered 3 - 4 Area of operation, period covered.

iii) Statement of the problem 4 - 5

iv) Method and approach 5

v) Sources of information and difficulties encountered 6

Chapter II Growth of the Industry 7 - 25

A - Origin of the industry 7 - 9

B - Causes of location 10 - 13
i) Availability of cheap labour
ii) Complementary industries
iii) Availability of raw material
iv) Transport facilities
v) Availability of electric power
vi) Some other factors

C - Stages of Development: 13 - 22
Main feature characterising growth during each period (1) Pre-independence period (2) Post-partition period (3) First Five Year Plan (4) Second Five Year Plan (5) Third Five Year Plan and (6) Present position and future prospects.

D - Types of Products 22 - 25
1. Brackets
2. Table lamps
3. Clusters
4. Miscellaneous - i.e. water tight brackets, Hand Reflectors, Shade Carriers, Lamp lock etc. etc.
Chapter III: Labour Conditions

1. Importance and Sources of Labour supply. 26 - 28

2. Classification of labour 28 - 33
   (a) According to skill - skilled and unskilled.
   (b) According to caste and community - Hindus - Muslims.
   (c) According to process - Moulding, filing and fitting, polishing, sheet cutting etc.
   (d) According to sex - Male and Female

3. Recruitment of labour 34 - 36
   (a) Recruitment through jobbers
   (b) Recruitment at factory gates
   (c) Recruitment through additional links
   (d) Recruitment through employment exchange
   (e) Recruitment through newspapers.

4. Methods of and Wage payment 36 - 39
   (a) Time wage system
   (b) Piece wage system
   (c) Contract wage system

5. Wages earned and trends of Expenditure 39 - 41

6. Working conditions: 41 - 44
   (a) Factory Premises
   (b) Hours of work, overtimes, holidays
   (c) Provident Fund facilities
   (d) Technical training

7. Labour Efficiency 45 - 46
   (a) Causes of low efficiency
      i) Low wages
      ii) Low standard of living
      iii) Bad working conditions
      iv) Lack of organisation among workers

8. Means for the improvement of low efficiency 47 - 48
   (a) Labour welfare work
   (b) Technical training
   (c) General working conditions
   (d) Legislation
   (e) Apathy of the Government and employers.
9. Welfare Activities
   (a) Labour welfare centres
   (b) State Insurance Scheme

10. Conclusion

Chapter IV: Organisation of Industry:

1. Importance
2. Classification of industry
   (a) From legal point of view
      (i) Single proprietorship
      (ii) Partnership firms, Private limited Companies
      (iv) Joint-family concerns i.e. Co-operative societies
   (b) From the viewpoint of scale of operation
      - 1. Cottage workshops, Small scale workshops, Large scale factories.
3. Critical study of existing organisational set up.
4. Conclusion

Chapter V: Capital And Finance

1. Types of finance requirements
   (i) Fixed capital, (ii) Circulating capital
2. Sources of finance.
   (a) Proprietors investment
   (b) Friends and relatives
   (c) Money lenders and shroff
   (d) Middlemen
   (e) Commercial banks
   (f) The State.
3. Comparative study of existing financial institutions.
   (a) Domination of Money Lenders.
   (b) Attitude of banks
   (c) Apathy of Government
4. Conclusion
Chapter VI: Marketing

1. Importance of marketing
2. Marketing of electrical goods

Methods of sale:
- A - Sale to government departments
- B - Sale to private users:
  1) Sale through agents
  2) Sale to wholesalers
  3) Sale to suppliers
  4) Sale to shopkeepers
  5) By advertising

3. Total sales of industry
4. Defects in marketing system
   a) Lack of publicity and propaganda
   b) Lack of marketing spirit
   c) Lack of standardisation and dishonest character of dealers

5. Suggestions
   a) Standardisation
   b) Educational drive

6. Conclusion and Performance of Industry

Chapter VII: State In Relation to Industry

1. Importance
2. Government Schemes
   a) Government's financial help
   b) Training and technical assistance
   c) Labour welfare measures
   d) Help in procurement of raw materials

3. Critical appraisal of State Policy
4. Suggestions

Chapter VIII: Findings and Suggestions

(a) Lack of proper organisation
(b) Out-moded techniques of production
(c) Shortage of capital requirements
(d) Scarcity of raw materials
(e) Defective marketing system
(f) Dearth of Managerial and technical skill.
(g) Heavy burden of taxation.

2. Recommendations
(a) Improvement in organisational set up
(b) Formation of co-operative societies (in marketing front).
(c) Quality marking scheme
(d) General moral and technical education
(e) Collection and publication of statistics
(f) Removal of duplicate taxation
(g) Detailed Scheme for Provision of credit

3. Future Prospects of the Industry

APPENDICES
1. Names of important manufacturing Units
2. Bibliography
3. Family budget of a typical labourer
4. A copy of questionnaire used in present survey
5. Pictures of main electric goods.
6. Maps (Aligarh City - showing centres) of Manufacturing Units
7. Charts and diagrams
8. List of tables.