ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am extremely grateful to my guides, Dr. Gurdip Singh Batra and Dr. Jasdeep Kaur Dhami, who have been a continuous source of knowledge, inspiration, motivation and encouragement during the entire course of this research work. Despite their busy schedules, they have been available at every step, devoting time and energy and the much needed counsel and advice. This enabled me to sail through the tough times and complete this enormous task.

My sincere thanks also goes out to the management of Lovely Professional University for supporting me in the best possible manner and facilitating me in balancing my work and my research. The doctoral programme of LPU has made it possible for me to pursue my dream of research and upgrade my knowledge alongside my professional responsibilities.

I also acknowledge the guidance and support of Dr. Raj, Registrar of Companies, Chandigarh and all the company secretaries who gave their critical advice in designing and helped me in administering the Directors’ Perception Survey. My sincere thanks also goes out to all the anonymous directors who spared their valuable time and participated in the survey helping me achieve the objectives of my research.

I am also thankful to all my colleagues at LPU for the elaborate and critical discussions often leading to a modification in methodology. These interactions have been a source of motivation for further learning and critical analysis.

I thank my family and friends, especially Ms. Monika Kalani – a colleague and a good friend, for being there for me and motivating me at every step to achieve this goal. Without their support and patience during the numerous ups and downs, their constant encouragement - ‘you can do it’ and ‘you are almost there’, completion of this journey would have been impossible. The support extended by them throughout the course of my research is beyond words and my literary capabilities.
