CONTENTS

CHAPTER I
NATURE AND SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PROBLEM

1. Introduction
2. Classroom As a Nucleus of Change
3. The Challenges of the Future Classrooms
4. Teacher Behaviour in the Classroom and Its Effects on Pupils.
5. The Need for Classroom Communication
6. What is Classroom Interaction Analysis?
7. Implications of Classroom Teacher Behaviour Researches.
8. The Present Study

CHAPTER II
PREVIOUS RESEARCHES

1. Studies on Social-Educational Climate in the Classroom.
2. Teaching Patterns Using Interaction Analysis Techniques.
4. Other Studies
5. Conclusions

CHAPTER III
THE PROBLEM AND PROCEDURE

1. Importance of the Problem
2. Definition of the Problem
3. Objectives of the Study
4. Hypothesis
5. The Design
6. Statistical Analysis
7. Scope and Delimitation
8. Sample
9. Tools used in the Investigation
10. Scheme of Chapters
CHAPTER IV
EXPERIMENTAL DESIGN

A. The Training Course
1. Organisation
2. Sessions
3. Teacher Behaviour (Initial) and Teacher Behaviour (Later)
4. Psychological Aspects of the Treatment
5. The Schedule of the Treatment

B. The Experiment
1. Pre-test and Post-test Scores
2. Administration of Tests
3. Pupil Behaviour
4. Other variables
5. Observations during the conduct of the Experiment.

CHAPTER V
CHANGE IN TEACHER BEHAVIOUR

I. Change in I/D and i/d Ratios
II. Review of Change in Category Numbers
III. Analysis of Other Interaction Variables
IV. Effect of Feedback on Important Categories
V. Inter-relation between Categories 1, 2, 3 and Categories 8 and 9.
VI. Inter-relation between Cells 4-4, 5-5, 8-8 and 9-9.
VII. Change in Teacher Behaviour According to subjects
VIII. Analysis of Master Matrices of Individual Teachers of Experimental and Control Groups.
IX. Discussion

CHAPTER VI
ANALYSIS OF DATA; THE GAINS IN TERMS OF PUPILS' ACHIEVEMENT

I. Measurement of Intelligence
II. Measures of Interaction Variables and Academic Performance
III. High and Low Achievers and the Interaction Variables. 6.34
IV. Correlational Studies 6.42
V. Teacher Behaviour in relation to Student Gains 6.46
VI. Discussion 6.50

CHAPTER VII
SUMMARY, OBSERVATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS 7.1 to 7.45
A. Summary 7.1
B. Design 7.10
C. Hypothesis 7.12
D. Tools Used 7.12
E. Procedure 7.16
F. Findings and Observations 7.19
G. Results and Discussion 7.32
H. Educational Implications 7.36
I. Suggestions for Further Research 7.42
