THE area of educational research especially of the type of the present one, is a very exhaustive and co-operative phenomenon and it has involved a great deal of assistance and encouragement from many friends as well as well-wishers some of whom need a special mention here.

THE investigator puts on record his deep sense of gratitude and gratefulness to his research guide DR.D.R.DARJI, Reader in Educational Administration and also for sometime, the Head of the Department of Educational Administration in the Faculty of Education and Psychology. With his personal heavy programmes of domestic as well as academic responsibilities, he has taken great pains in guiding the present study and has seen it very critically at all stages. He has always given an encouraging and scholastic guidance to the investigator and bring it in the present form of submission.

THE investigator puts on record the appreciation and thanks to PROFESSOR D.B.DESAI, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology for the excellent academic and research atmosphere that floats in the Faculty and CASE.
THE investigator thanks Dr. P.K. DONGRE, Professor and Head, Department of Educational Administration for his academic interest and research activities of the department and also in this study especially. The help and guidance given by Dr. B.R. PANCHAL, Department of Extension Services' Coordinator is also recorded with thanks.

THE co-operation and interest of the responding teachers and the help rendered by the Principals of the sampled schools in Gujarat State are equally important in this study and are thankfully acknowledged.

THE investigator puts on record the inspiration and help that he frequently achieved from Dr. (Smt.) P.B. Dekhtawala, Lecturer in the Department of Educational Administration and Shri D.K. Sharma, Teacher Fellow in CASE especially in statistical presentation in the present study.

THE facilities given by Pandit Anandpriyaji, Secretary, Arya Kanya Mahavidyalaya to the investigator in the completion of this study are also thankfully recorded.

LAST but not the least, the investigator desires to state his appreciation to Shri B.D. Mistry for typing the Thesis carefully and to Smt. S.S. Padhye, the CASE Librarian for her graceful help in supplying the relevant literature.
