Acknowledgements are customary in offering an Academic dissertation. For me they are more than customary. I am deeply indebted to express my feelings of gratitude to the persons who helped directly or indirectly in completing this task.

First of all let me acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to my guide Dr. Anjuli Verma, Head, Department of Psychology, Faculty of Education & Psychology of the M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara without whose continued stimulation & supervision I could hardly have completed this task.

I am equally grateful & indebted to Dr. N.S. Pathak who occasionally encouraged and took genuine interest in my work, for his valuable guidance for conducting my research work in various stages.

I take this opportunity of thanking all the respondents of various faculties, without whose co-operation, it would not have been possible for me to complete this study.

My thanks are also due to Shri. Milind Beedkar, Registrar, The M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara, who took keen interest in my academic pursuits.

My special thanks are also due to Mr. Bansal who professionally helped me in analysis of my data.

I am equally grateful to my in laws Mrs. & Mr. P.J. Lavingia and also my parents Mrs. & Dr. S.K. Sharma with whom I stayed in my childhood and tried to copy them in my life. It is the gift of their company that I never had any second thought than to go for education, higher and higher.

I, of course, have no word of thanks for my husband who besides doing his own work and looking after domestic activities, he helped me in sorting out the papers, preparing tables and references etc.

I am thankful to the staff of the Smt. Hansa Mehta Library, Case Library as well as the Faculty of Social Work Library for the help given to me.

Last but not the least, Mr. Kanu R. Parmar, who has helped me with the computerization of my research work i.e. designing layout of the questionnaire of the computer, followed with the data tabulation and statistical analysis and formatting of my Thesis and deserves my special word of appreciation.
