LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS:

Figure 1 The front page of a book on Karnataka with the most prominent symbols of ancient Kannada dynasties.

Figure 2 The Hoysala royal emblem at the Chennakesava Temple in Belur, Sala fighting the tiger, the symbol of Hoysala Empire at Belur, Karnataka. Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hoysala_Empire

Figure 3 The Ganga Emblem - 10th century copper plate. Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Western_Ganga_Dynasty

Figure 3 Chalukya emblem of Aihole in Karnataka depicts Vishnu in Varaha form. A 6th century stone emblem courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Chalukya_dynasty

Figure 4 Vijayanagar empire: Royal Insignia: boar, sun, moon and dagger Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Vijayanagara_Empire

Figure 5 Shāhān-e Moğul. courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mughal_Empire

Figure 6 The Kingdom of Mysore: Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kingdom_of_Mysore

Figure 7 The Gandaberunda emblem in the Mysore Palace. Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gandaberunda

Figure 8 The State emblem of Karnataka. Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Seal_of_Karnataka.svg

Figure 9 Brochure of Kannada Paksha, one of the rare evidence with flag colour representations. 1960

Figure 10 Sita Bhoopravesam, Ravi Verma, Imitations 1884-1906

Figure 11 The mother goddess Indus valley civilization. Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Indus_Valley_Civilization

Figure 12 A, & B. Ruins of the Bhuvaneshwari on the temple at Mugur near Mysore.

Figure 14: The above visual is from the original illustrated manuscript from Shakthi nidhi, Sritatvanidhi volume 1, oriental research institute publication. Bottom firsts from the left is the visual representation on Goddess Bhuvaneshwari.

Figure 15 A & B: Kannada mother goddess deity at Hampi, special ceremony on 1 November 1973, Karnataka naming ceremony. Source: Karnataka Mahotsava Sanchike, 1 November 1973. Published by Karnataka Namakarna mahotsava Samithi.

Figure 16 A: Front Cover page Design: Karnataka Mahimna Stotra-1 1957 Publication, II 2006 Publication

Figure 16 B: Titled as Shivashakthi. Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 17: Titled as "Parashakthi" Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 18: The symbol of The Mother of Sri Aurobindo Ashram. Source: http://www.sriaurobindoashram.org/ashram/mother/symbol.php

Figure 19: Titled as Bhuvaneshwari Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 20: Titled as Maheshwari, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 21: Titled as Mahakali Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 22: The Gandaberunda Emblem in the Mysore Palace. Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gandaberunda

Figure 23: Sala fighting the tiger, the symbol of Hoysala Empire at Belur, Karnataka. Courtesy: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hoysala_Empire

Figure 24: Titled as "Mahalakshmi", Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 25: Title as Mahasaraswathi, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 26: Popular image of Sringeri Sharadha source: http://www.sringeri.net/
Figure 27 Titled as Mookambika, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 28 The popular images on Goddess Mookambika, painted version and photographed version. Source: http://www.kollur.com/kollur.php/

Figure 29 Titled as Ratnagarbha, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 30 Titled as Sridurge, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 31 Titled as Indrani, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 31 Titled as Varahi, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 32 Titled as Aditi, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 33 Titled as Kaumari, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 34 Titled as Kundalini, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 35 Titled as Tripurasundari, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 36 Titled as Savithri, Illustration by B Condacharya, Karnataka Mahimna Stotra. 1953

Figure 37 Thayee Bhuvaneshwari by SN Patil 1953. Deity that Andanappa dodametti prayed and established as goddess of his family and of Karnataka. Source: Ravindra Doddametti.

Figure 38 The shrine of goddess Bhuvaneshwari inside the temple complex of Virupaksha at Hampi.

Figure 39 A November 1, 1973 on the eve of renaming the state of Mysore as Karnataka, lighting of the torch of Karnataka jyothi and pooja devotional ceremony at the shrine of Kannada goddess bhuvaneswari at Hampi. Source: Karnataka Mahotsava Sanchike, 1 November 1973. Published by Karnataka Namakarna Mahotsava Samithi.

Figure 39 B Kannada goddess, referred as the representation of Vasudeva kutumba, Mother Goddess: Sri Bhuvaneshwari

Figure 40 A, B, C, D. Statue of Teigu Talli: Teigu mother goddess of Andra Pradesh

1. 40 A: http://www.panoramio.com/photo/4950741
2. 40 B: http://www.ipr.ap.nic.in/release/phsmall.asp?phid=42114
5. 40 E Figure 40 E illustrated image of Teigu Talli, popular image. http://mp3scorner.com/download-maa-telugu-talliki-mp3-song/

Figure 41 Shivaji receiving Bhavani’s sword (c. 1950), a post independence representation of shivaji’s divinely approved actions. Courtesy: Christopher Pinney’s Photos of the Gods.

Figure 42 Green Flags along with the Sena-BJP Alliance’s saffron flags ruled the Sena rally in Malegaon on October 8, 2009. (Courtesy: Photo Zahoor Khan) Source: http://www.ummid.com/news/October/09.10.2009/green_flags_in_sena_rally.htm

Figure 43 The Maratha flag been waved at the marathon Mumbai 2012. http://www.flickr.com/photos/selvin/6713131499/ Courtesy: Selvin Photography.

Figure 44 Bharat Mata. Anon., School textbook front piece printed in V. Lakshmanan, Putiya Aarapakayvai Tamil (moontaam Puttakam), Shri Shanmugha Publishing House, Mannargudi, 1958. Courtesy: body politics: Sumathi Ramaswamy, picturing the nation. Edited by Richard Davis.

Figure 45 Tamilittay. S.K. Ayya, Chromolithograph Published by Kamban Kazhagam, Karaikkudi, C1941. Courtesy: body politics: Sumathi Ramaswamy, picturing the nation. Edited by Richard Davis.

Figure 46 The unofficial flag of Tamil Nadu. Flag of DMK, Dravidian party from the Indian state of Tamil Nadu. Source: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/File:DMK_flag.PNG

Figure 47 “Hope” by George Frederic Watts, 1886. Source: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/George_Frederic_Watts

THE VISUAL CULTURE OF CONTEMPORARY INDIA
ASSERTION OF KANNADA VISUAL IDENTITY IN CONTEXT OF GLOBALISATION
Figure 48 The amended version of the Ravi verma press Chaurasi Devata Auvali Gay. Courtesy Photos of Gods, Christopher Pinney, PP. 112

Figure 49 The depiction of Mother India by Amrita Sher Gil, in a state of concern and question. Courtesy: Sumathi Ramaswamy: the goddess and the nation, Amrita Sher-Gil, Mother India. Oil on Canvas. 1935 (National Gallery of modern art. New Delhi, Acc no. 1134). Sumathi Ramaswamy, The goddess and the Nation, PP. 240.

Figure 50 Courtesy: Bharat Bhiksa (India Begging). Lithograph published by Calcutta Art Studio, Calcutta, Circa 1878. Courtesy of Christopher Pinney. Source: Sumathi Ramaswamy, The goddess and the Nation, PP. 80

Figure 51 Mother India by Mehboob Productions Private Limited. Courtesy: Mehboob Production private limited. 1957.

Figure 52 Bharat Mata. Chromolithograph of Abanindranath Tagore, Water colour: Bharath Mata (dated 1904-1905) (OSIAN'S Archive, Research and Documentation Centre, Mumbai. Source: Sumathi Ramaswamy, The goddess and the Nation, PP. 16.

Figure 53 Kannada Film: Veerasankalapa, 1964. Courtesy: Director Hunsooru Krishnamurthy

Figure 54 The scene from SriKrishnadevaraya, 1970, in the background is the map of Bharath, (map of pre independent India)'

Figure 55 A & B Immadi Pulikeshi 1967, Directed by N C Rajan.

Figure 56 A & B Manoj Kumar movie 1965 Shaheed based on the life of Bhagat Singh with Bharath mata in the background, handcuffed.

Figure 57 The contemporary youth version of Bharath Matha in graffiti style from Rang De Basanti 2006.

Figure 58 “Kannada Balali, Kannada belagali, Kannada usirali, Kannada balasiri, Kannada kalisiri”1976, Procured from Raja Verma Arts.

Figure 59 Painted By PKM Swamy, Shiv Kashi, Tamil Nadu, Printed by Raja Verma Arts 1995.

Figure 60 Bharath Mata: Print: JB Khanna and company, Tamil Nadu. Source: Raja Verma Arts

Figure 61 Bharath Matha. Print: JB Khanna and company
Figure 62 Kaveri goddess "Kaveri mata" Print: JB Khanna and company

Figure 63 Raja Verma Arts, printed during the Cauvery water crisis 1995-96

Figure 64 "Karnataka Kannada Rajyotsava, Sri Kannada Geige, SiriKannada Balge" Raja Verma Arts 1998.

Figure 65 "Suvarna Karnataka Rajyotsava, Kannada Kasturi" Raja Verma Arts Nov 1, 2006 off set print.

Figure 66 Karnataka Kannada Rajyotsava “Jayahe Karnatake Mathe, Jai Bhuvaneshwari” Raja Verma Arts Printed in 1990’s.

Figure 67. “Jai Kannada Thayee, Jai Bhuvaneshwari”, “Suvarna Karnataka Rajyotsava, Kannada kasthuri” Suvarna Karnataka Rajyotsava, marked the 50 years of Independent state of Karnataka on 1 Nov 2006., Raja Verma Arts Printed in Nov 1, 2006.

Figure 68 Jaya he Karnataka Mathe, Karnataka Kannada Rajyotsava, , Raja Verma Arts, offset print 1985.

Titled as “March to Independence” the theatric tabloid depicts the enunciation of the dominant male characters in the spaces and positions as a national statement.

Figure 70 “Jaya he Karnataka Mathe”, Raja Verma Arts. Print 1997

Figure 71 Krishna and Arjuna from the Mahabharata Battle field. (From the Krishna Gallery, www.krishnagallery.com, copyrights The Bhaktivedanta Book Trust International.

Figure 72 “Karnataka Ratna Dr Rajkumar” Raja Verma Arts, 1992

Figure 73 Jayachamaraja Wodeyar Bahadur (July 18, 1919- September 23, 1974) poster released after 1974.

Figure 74 Sri jayachamarajendra wodeyar, Raja Verma Arts 1974.

Figure 75 “Jai Karnataka Mathe, Karnataka Ratna, Dr. Rajkumar”, Raja Verma Arts, Laser Print 2006-7
Figure 76 “Natasarvabhouma Dadasaheb Phalke padmabhooshan, Karnataka Ratna Dr. Rajkumar” Raja Verma Arts, Laser print- 2006-7

Figure 77 “Kannada Kala Kanteerava Dr Rajkumar”, Raja Verma Arts offset print, 2006

Figure 78 A “Karnataka Kannada Rajyotsava”, Raja Verma Arts, 1990-2005.

Figure 78 B The reference of Thayee Bhuvaneshwari enlarged from the previous poster.

Figure 79 “Suvarna Karnataka Rajyotsava” Raja Verma Arts, 2006

Figure 80 “Jai Bhuvaneshwari” Raja Verma Arts, 1995

Figure 81. “Suvarna Karnataka Rajyotsava” Raja Verma Arts, 2006.

Figure 82 “Karnataka Kannada Thayee Kaveri” Raja Verma Arts, 2007-08.

Figure 83 “Karnataka Kannada Rajyotsava, Karnataka Ratna Dr. Rajkumar, Jai Karnataka Mathe” Raja Verma Arts

Figure 84 Kannada Kala Kanteerva, November 15, 2000. (During the period when Dr Rajkumar was released)

Figure 85 Most prominent roles played by Rajkumar from Kannada films.

Figure 86 Interpretations on the Kidnap of Rajkumar by BKS Varma 1999-2000

Figure 87 “Ajaramara” Interpretations on Rajkumar by BKS Varma 1999-2000

Figure 88 Dr Rajkumar representing as the host of Kannada and Karnataka, Raja Verma Arts 1990s.

Figure 89 “Karnataka Ratna Dr. Rajkumar” Raja Verma Arts, Print: 1996

Figure 90 “Dr Rajkumar, Apoorva Sangam Shankar Nag” Raja Verma Arts Print: 1997.

Figure 91. “Kannada Balali, Jai Karnataka Mathe, Kannada belagali”

Figure 92, “Shankar nag” Raja Verma Arts, Raja Verma Arts, 1990s

Figure 93 film Auto Raja 1982, Shankar nag with news paper and his auto puchlined with “Jai Karnataka Mathe”
Figure 94 "Jai Karnataka Mathe, Sahasa Simha Vishnuvardhan" Released after the film "Yajamana" Raja Verma Art, 1996.

Figure 95 “Dr Vishnuvardhan” Raja Verma Arts, 2009.

Figure 96 “Karnataka Simha” Raja Verma Arts, 2009

Figure 97 Untitled, Raja Verma Arts, 2009.

Figure 98 After the release of the film Sreemantha Raja Verma Arts, 2009.

Figure 99 “Karnataka Simha, Dr Vishnuvardhan” Raja Verma Arts, 2009.

Figure 100 “Karnataka Simha, Dr Vishnuvardhan” after the release of Aptharakshaka, Raja Verma Arts. Print: 2009.

Figure 101 “Karnataka Simha, Dr Vishnuvardhan" Raja Verma Arts, 2009.

Figure 102 “Jai Karnataka Mathe” Ravi Verma Arts, 1990’s

Figure 103 “ Sahasa Simha Dr Vishnuvardhan” Ravi verma Arts, 1990’s

Figure 104 A visual from the song “Kannadove namma Amma” of the film “Mojurara sogasugara” (in the backdrops of Mysore palace, statues of Wodeyars) 1996

Figure 105 A “Madakarinayaka” as Ambaresh, Raja Verma Arts, 1990’s.

Figure 105 B “Rebel star Ambaresh”, Raja Verma Arts, 1990’s.

Figure 105 C Untitled Poster on Ambaresh, Raja Verma Arts, 1990’s.

Figure 106 A visual from Solillada saradhara, Ambaresh presented as the patriotic rulers of Karnataka, in the backgrounds of Bangalore Palace. In the left is a visual from another song of the same film appraising Kaveramma: Mother kaveri.

Figure 107 Thayee Bhuvaneshwari an interpretation form BKS Varma’s version, Raja varma arts. 1990’s

Figure 108 “Jayahe Karnataka Mathe” adopted from B K S Varma Painting (Sri lakshmi), 2011 Raja Verma Arts

Figure 109 “Suvarna Karnataka Kannada Rajyotsava” goddess adopted form BKS Varma paintings, Raja Verma Arts, 2011
Figure 110 “Jayahē Karnataka Mathe”. Goddess Bhuvaneshwari painted by BKS Verma, posters from Kannada Sahitya Parishat, Bengaluru.

Figure 111 The official website of government of Karnataka as on 18 Feb 2012.

Figure 112 Tipu sultan images in mobile display 2012, in contrast with the visual look alike of Maharana Pratap, C, 1944 (Courtesy: Christopher Pinney, Photos of the Gods)

Figure 113 Another visual representation on religious iconography in ‘moving’ pictures 2012.

Figure 114 Flex print: temple inauguration invitation, with Rajkumar as the endorser and host 2012.

Figure 115 A Poster on public announcement by private groups. Centralized with mother goddess Thayee Bhuvaneshwari 2012.

Figure 116 A flag post basement with pasteur poster of a Kannada activits group, with Mother Bhuvaneshwari as the centrally composed goddess. This post is situated in the front lane of Karnataka legislative assembly-vidhansoudha 2012.

Figure 117 Autostand board of Basavanagudi. Highlighted vishnuvarshan in the extreme left in the biggest size, and in the board is Rajkumar in the extreme left and Shankar nag in the extreme right on the upper panel mentioning “druvathare (Auspicious star named Druv) Dr Rajkumar auto drivers union. Below is the blue board with all icons starting with Rajkumar in the left, Wodeyar, Visweshwarlah, mother goddesss Thayee Bhuvaneshwari and Kempegowda and Kuvempu. The extreme right portrait in the signature corner is the unknown leader who is responsible for this “social contribution” 2012.

Figure 118 This visual is from Basavanagudi area, one of the temple fronts, where Vishnuvardhan is printed in flex in a size and space of usually deity images during festivals and processions. In the process of iconography making such stars turns as well celebrated icons, but their presence in the holy ambience of a temple, with garlands and representation, asserts the demand for new icons.

Figure 119 A panaromic view of a street completely covered with flex on the eve of a temple inauguration, with portraits of local polititians to the religious leaders.
Figure 120 The prayers and felicitation of Kannada mother goddess Thayee Bhuvaneshwari by opposition leader LK Advani in yalore during his Bharath Rath Yatra in 2012.

Figure 121 Kannada politicians offering prayers to Kannada mother goddess during the Rajyotsava day celebrations. The flag and one of the versions of Matha, here as Kannada Matha celebrated with pooja rituals.

Figure 122 The Uncountable heads and Immortal in vinyl: one of the local party exhibits their flex with their icon Dr B R Ambedkar. The portraits ironically here are in huge numbers, claiming for the social contribution. The leaders in the top are Buddha, Basaveshwara, Tipu Sultan, Narayanaguru and so forth. 2011.

Figure 123 Vishnuvardhan in front of a village house of Mugur in the outskirts of Mysore. 2011.

Figure 124 Bharat Matha on flex surrounded by the sponsored local political members, at Yelahanka Old town circle. 2012.

Figure 125 Kannada flag pole, with flex flashing Vishnuvardhan and Sir M Vishweshwaralah at the Koramangala circle near Forum Mall 2012.

Figure 126 Stickers of Shankar nag with other images of gods 2012.

Figure 127 Stickers of Ambarish on luggage carriers titled “Mandyada Gandu” 2012.

Figure 128 Anna Hazare with all national leaders with local political members at Koramangala 2012.

Figure 129 Shankar Nag stickers on the cabs and auto rickshaws 2012.

Figure 130 Shankar Nag stickers on the cabs and auto rickshaw 2012.

Figure 131 The Press release covering the issue of Kannada flag: Bangalore Mirror, Jan 16 2009.

Figure 132 Rajkumar ‘immortals in vinyl’ celebrated in public domain 2012.

Figure 133 Auto culture stickers of icons 2012.

Figure 134 Mother on wall, Kannada Mother Goddess and Kitturu Rani Chennamma on the government property walls painted by BBMP, near Binny mills, Magadi road, Bangalore 2011.

Figure 135 Kannada in social networking websites as on Feb 2012.
Figure 136 Visuals of Kannada mother goddess Thayee Bhuvaneshwari and her sons: Rajkumar, Shankar Nag and Vishnuvardhan. In the right is another board with Subhash Chandra Bose in the right hand side corner, Sahakarnagar, Bengaluru 2010.

Figure 137 The procession of mother goddess Thayee Bhuvaneshwari during the (Kannada Rajyotsava) state day celebration all over Karnataka, 2011.

Figure 138 BJP Leader LK Advani garlanding Kannada mother at Mysore during his Rath Yatra of 2011.

Figure 139 Procession chariots with mother goddess in the prominent areas of Bengaluru: Basavangudi, 2011.

Figure 140 Thayee Bhuvaneshwari, Shilpakala Academy, Govt. of Karnataka, 2011.