Acknowledgements

It is a sacred and pleasant task to acknowledge the help I received from a number of kind people.

I deem it matter of great pleasure to express my profound indebtedness and gratitude to my esteemed guide Prof. Bonny Pilo, Head Department Of Zoology, Vice Dean Faculty of Science for his valuable guidance, encouragement, very personal assistance and allowing me to pursue my goals in my own way. His ability to generate research intrigue and skill to unearth the deeper significance of the facts that emerge from experimentation is indeed worthy and kindled my interest in research. His learned and incisive suggestion about my problem are and helped me overcome the difficult circumstances.

I express my deep appreciation to Dr. Pragna Parikh, Senior Lecturer, Department of zoology for her warm encouragement, during the tenure of my work. I am also deeply appreciative of teaching and non-teaching staff of department of Zoology for their kind help and cooperation.

I thankful to Dr. Shail esh Patel, Alakh lab., Ms. Trupti and their Staff for their help and cooperation in hormone assay.

The financial assistance in the form of scholarship from UGC-DSA programme is acknowledge.

I am greatly indebted to my colleagues Dr. B. Anoopkumar, Mr. P.K. Pradeep, Dr. Saji Oommen, Dr. K.R. Vinod and Ms. Anjali Joshi for their sustained cooperation during the tenure of my work.

I express my thanks to Dr, Suresh and Dr, Isha for their valuable counselling. They have given freely their time and expertise to answer queries, check facts, verify data. I specially thank Suresh for deflecting me from many errors I might have otherwise made during the work. I am thankful to both of them for their timely help during the tenure of the study. I also owe my debt for their remarkable help in computer work.

My friends Ranjit, Dandekar and Anil deserve a word of gratitude for their help, and encouragement in many ways all along. I would like to express my indebt gratitude to my dear friend Dr. Debjani Roy for extending love and encouragement throughout the tenure.

It gives great pleasure to acknowledge my friend Mr. Shital for his continuous encouragement. I am thankful for his unstinting and most generously given support during trying circumstances. I appreciate the help provided by him specially during the final stages of this thesis.

In the task of collating the material uncovered in my research, arranging it in systemic manner and writing up the work, it was immense good fortune to have Jai as my strength. My heartfelt thanks go to her for endless patience, assistance and for helpful comments and correction and also for being with me all through the 'ups and downs' of our research work together. I appreciate her warm encouragement even in the most uncomfortable and trying circumstances of research.

Above all I owe more to my beloved family members, whose faith in me helped me so immensely in achieving this goal. I am grateful to them not just for their love and affection, but for their painstaking efforts and inspirational directions. Any attempt to thank them must inevitably fall short.
