DIRECTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF THE STUDENTS

On the following pages are a number of partly completed sentences. Each can be completed meaningfully if you link it up with any of the alternatives offered. Note that each of the three answers are equally good to make the incomplete sentences meaningful and complete. As this is neither a test of your intelligence nor your proficiency of language, there is no question of a right or wrong answer. You are to select only two answers, one of which should correspond most and other correspond least with your present likings or attitudes. Look at the example below:

I like to ..... A. Keep things neat and orderly.
B. do things for my friends.
C. undertake tasks requiring skills.

Which of these answers is more characteristic of what you like? If you like "keeping things neat and orderly" more than the other two activities, then you should put a tick (✓) mark on letter A. Put a cross mark on the letter which stands for an answer that characterizes what you like least.
The incomplete sentences on the following pages are similar to the example given above. Put a tick (✓) mark on the letter which indicates the answer that corresponds most with your characteristics. Put a cross for an answer that is least characteristic of you.

Please note that your answer should be in terms of what you like or feel at the present time and not in terms of what you should think or how you think you should feel.

You are requested to answer all the items. Do not skip any.
