Adjustment Inventory (First Draft)

Instructions: In general sense adjustment means to cope with or to get along to different situations. Life is a continuous effort of adjustment to the environment which may be social, physical, psychological or any other. Teachers are not exceptions to this. They have also to face different situations for adjustment in their profession.

In this inventory 58 statements indicating adjustment in various facets of teaching profession, have been given in interrogative form. Each statement carried only three answers 'Yes', 'No' or 'Uncertain' for which there are three columns against every statement written 'Yes' and 'No' or 'Uncertain' on the top. Please read all the statements carefully one by one and give your responses by making tick mark (✓) against that statement and under the column 'Yes', 'No' or 'Uncertain' i.e. if your answer of the question is 'Yes' then make tick mark under the column 'Yes' or if not then under the column 'No'. If you are unable to decide, then make tick mark under column 'Uncertain'.

This information is being collected only for research purpose and your responses will be treated as most confidential, therefore you are requested to give your answers frankly without any reservation. There is nothing like right or wrong answer and no time limit. Even then please do your work as fast as you can and give your answer, which comes at once in your mind. You have to attempt all the questions.

Thanks for your kind cooperation.
