

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I consider it my proud privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to my guide Dr. (Ms) Nalini Ogale, Professor, Department of Home Management, Faculty of Home Science, M.S. University of Baroda, for her constant encouragement and inspiration, with her scholarly guidance and invaluable suggestions for the successful accomplishment of my doctoral thesis. I am indeed greatly indebted to her.

I am indebted to Dr. (Mrs.) Kamala Srinivasan and Dr.(Mrs.) Rachel George (Ex Head and Present Head of the Home Management Department respectively) for providing me with the Department facilities as and when I needed them.

I am immensely obliged and grateful to Sr. Joseline E. Pauath, my provincial superior, Holy Cross Institute, Hazaribag and Sr. Angela Lukose, my principal, Holy Cross Women's College, Ambikapur, for granting me permission and generously providing with financial assistance for pursuing the doctoral programme.

I am grateful to the University Grant Commission and Guru Ghasidas University, Bilaspur for granting me Teacher Fellowship for a period of one year to complete my research work.

I extend my sincere gratitude to Fr. C. R.Prabhu, Director, Catholic Charities, Jamshedpur. His great interest in the 'Ho' tribe inspired me to take up this study. At a later stage he also provided me his full co-operation by making available his staff. They acted as my interpreters, informants and confidants, without whom this study would have not been a success.

I would like to thank profusely Mr. Vipul A. Kalamkar, lecturer in statistics and Dr. S.M. Joshi, Reader, Department of Economics, M.S. University of Baroda, for their invaluable guidance in statistical analysis.

I am extremely grateful to my friend Bro. Malcolm Rodrigues, S.J. who showed great interest in my work, encouraging me at every step and inspite of his busy schedule spent his precious time to prepare the graphs very neatly and beautifully. I also acknowledge the hospitality offered by his community members in Gurjarvani, Ahmedabad.

My sincere thanks to Mrs. Elizabeth Francis, Ms Cheryl Francis and Ms Angelina Fernandes whose invaluable and rigorous scrutiny helped me to remove the excess of verbiage thus improving the style of manuscript.

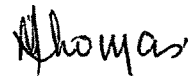

My thanks are due to Fr. Mathew Aræparmpil S.J. who allowed me to use his personal library which helped me with valuable information about the 'Ho' tribe.

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my mother, brothers and other family members for their encouragement and moral support throughout the period of my study. Generous help received from my brother Mr. Philip Thomas in getting my interview schedule printed, is gratefully acknowledged.

I add a word of thanks to Fr. George Puthenpura CSSR, Fr. Lawrence Lobo S.J., Fr. Bento Fernandes, S.J. Bro. Donatus Kujur S.J., Dr. Sunanda Phadke, Mrs. Asha Bansal, Mrs. Rashmi Kacker, Mrs. P.R. Sumangela, Mrs. Santosh Tikod and Ms. Renuka Kadapatti for their constant encouragement and support during the course of my study.

I deem it my duty to thank the respondents who posted me with relevant information during the course of data collection. My sincere thanks to Mrs. Celine Verghese for typing the Hindi interview schedule and to Mr. Sanjay Patel for drawing the map.

I owe my gratitude to Midea Point Computer Centre for typing out the whole thesis meticulously and patiently.
