ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

How does one express the feelings of love, admiration and deep gratitude towards someone, who is always there but not there? I have no words but my work to offer late Smt. Anjaliben Merh, under whose guidance the thesis work began. On her untimely demise, there was a sudden black out for about a year. Prof. C.V. Chandrasekhar brought a ray of hope when he joined the college as the Head of the Dance Department and accepted me as his student. His special analysis of classical dance movements made this work easy. I heartily thank him with a deep sense of gratitude. The scholarship of U.G.C. gave me opportunity to concentrate on the thesis work and I'm grateful to the U.G.C. for the same.

It would have been impossible to conduct this kind of research work without the co-operation of the people of different communities in the villages. I'm thankful to all those with whom I talked, observed and shared a common bond and who accepted me as one of them. The understanding provided by Shri Khodidasbhai Parmar, Shri Jaymalbhai Parmar, Shri Mithabhai Parsana, Dr. Rana, Shri Goverdhan Panchal, Smt. Susmitaben Medh, Shri Ramasihji Rathod, Shri Mansukh Joshi, Ku. Pratibha Pandit, Prof. Markand Bhat, Shri Madhubhai Patel (Bombay) and of Baroda and other scholars of the folk as well as classical field have been the guiding principles. My travels and field trips would have been impossible but for the help of the Department of Forest, P.W.D. and Department of Youth and Cultural activities, Government of Gujarat.

During the whole time 'Didi' Nargisben, Damumama (Damu Zaveri) Dr. Merh, my parents and Prabuddha (my husband) have supported, forced, corrected me and have helped me in all possible manners for which I'm indeed indebted to them.

I specially thank Suresh Parekh for his tremendous help in my photographic work. I thank Gauri and all her friends who have danced for me in the middle of the day and Vikram Patil for his help in understanding various rhythms. How could I forget my young friends Meera, Charu, Anupam, Sandhya and Gauri who assisted in the compilation work and Pradip Barua for taking off my work load at times.

At last, I thank all those, whose direct or indirect words, actions and songs have made the dance traditions of Rasa in Gujarat alive and vibrant.
