LIST OF PLATES

1. Camunda Devi temple, Devi-ri-kothi (Chamba), a specimen of Type I temples.
2. Sari of Mahesvari Devi temple, Sari village near Matiana (Simla hills); a specimen of Type II temples.
3. Tripurasundari temple, Naggar (Kulu); an example of Type III temples.
4. Kotesvara Mahadeva temple, Koti village (Simla hills); an example of Type IV temples.
5. Laksana Devi temple, Brahmaur (Chamba), 7th century A.D.
6. Doorway to the Laksana Devi temple.
7. Triangular gable and pediment above the doorway to Laksana Devi temple.
8. Ceiling panel of Laksana Devi temple showing the figure of a yaksa holding a garland.
9. Ceiling panel (detail) of Laksana Devi temple.
10. Wooden pillar inside the Laksana Devi temple.
11. Wooden pillar inside the Sakti Devi temple, Chhatrarhi (Chamba), 7th century A.D.
12. Stone pillar capital (detail), Ajanta cave XXIV, to which Nos. 10 & 11 bear a striking resemblance.
13. Sakti Devi temple, Chhatrarhi (Chamba).
14. Detail of the left jamb of outer doorway to the Sakti Devi temple.
15. Detail of the right jamb of the doorway to the sanctum sanctorum of the above temple.
16. Detail of the left jamb of the doorway to the sanctum sanctorum of the above temple.
17. Detail of the wooden pillar inside the Sakti Devi temple.
18. Detail of a ceiling panel showing a yaksa, Sakti Devi temple.
20. Dancing Krsna - detail of one of the ceiling panels of the Camunda Devi temple above Chamba town.
21. An apsara (a winged nymph) - detail of a ceiling panel from the above temple.
22. A young girl playing with a ball - detail of a panel depicting a secular theme from the above temple.
23. Detail of the central cavity of the ceiling of the above temple.
24. Door guardian flanking the entrance to the Devi-ri-kothi temple, Chamba.
25. The gana figure carved on the pillar bracket (detail) from the above temple.
26. Door guardian and the river goddess Yamuna flanking the entrance to the Devi-ri-kothi temple, Chamba.
27. Sandhya-Gayatri temple, Jagatsukh (Kulu).
28. Detail of the spandrels and arches of the above temple.
29. Detail of the sun window on the gable of the above temple.
30. Detail of the side panel of the above temple.
31. Cypress-shaped pillars fringing the ambulatory path of the above temple.
32. Detail of the wooden pillar, Sandhya-Gayatri temple.
33. Candika Devi temple, Kothi village, Kinnaur.
34. Ukha Devi temple, Nichar or Nachar, Kinnaur.
35. Detail of the carved friezes showing the incarnations of Visnu above the doorway to the inner sanctum of Trigaresvara Devata temple, Janog (Simla hills).
36. Detail from a wooden pillar from the above temple showing Visnu releasing the elephant from the clutches of a crocodile (gajendra-moksama).
37. Detail of the doorway to the sanctum sanctorum, Trigaresvara Devata temple.
38. Gautama Rsi temple, Gosala village (Kulu).
39. Detail of a wooden pillar in front of Bijli Mahadeva temple, Kulu.
40. Detail of the carving on the ceiling of the Ayodhyanatha temple, Rampur (Simla hills).
41. Detail of a wooden pillar from the above temple.
42. Detail of a ceiling panel depicting Krsna and the milkmaids of Braja, Ayodhyanatha temple.
43. Detail of a ceiling panel showing scenes from the Ramayana and the Mahabharata, Ayodhyanatha temple.
44. Bhimakali temple, Sarahan, Simla hills.
45. Detail of a carved window on the side wall of the above temple.
46. Detail of another window depicting many-armed Goddess Durga astride her vahana the lion on one of the walls of the above temple.
47. Detail of a carved window from the above temple showing pot-and-foliage motifs; peacocks flank the pot. Above them are depicted confronting peacocks drinking from a vase.
48. Elaborately carved window, Bhimakali temple (Sarahan).
49. Detail of another window carved with pot-and-foliage motifs and figural themes; Bhimakali temple.
50. Detail of carved balcony panels, Bhimakali temple.
51. A side view of the Bhimakali temple.
52. A ratha (Chariot) carved on the wooden window of Nava Durga temple, Bhatgaon, Nepal, 18th century A.D.
53. The wooden chariot of Raghunathaji in Dhalpur maidan, Kulu town.
54. The Bhajabati temple, Kathmandu, Nepal; 18th century.
55. Siva temple, Pandrethan, Srinagar (Kasmir), 8th century A.D.
56. Hidimba Devi temple, Dhungri village, near Manali, Kulu; 16th century A.D.
57. Detail of the carved lintels of entrance to the Hidimba Devi temple.
58. Right jamb of the doorway to the Hidimba Devi temple.
59. Left jamb of the doorway to the above temple.
60. Detail of the left window of the above temple.
61. Detail of the right window of the above temple.
62&63. Details of carving on the eaves of the above temple.
64-67. Details of carving on the eaves-boards of Hidimba Devi temple.
68. Doorway to the sanctum sanctorum, Tripurasundari temple, Naggar (Kulu).
69. Parasara Rsi temple, Parasara village (Mandi).
70. Details of a wooden pillar capital depicting pot-and-foliage motif flanked by birds resembling eagles, Parasara Rsi temple (Mandi).
71. Durga mahisasuramardini, details of a carved panel from Parasara Rsi temple (Mandi).
72. Tarjugi Narayana temple, Dyar village, Kulu.
73. Adi Brahma temple, Khokhan, Kulu.
74. Brahma temple in Dhiri village, Mandi.
75. Parasara Rsi temple in Kamand village, Mandi.
76. Bahena Mahadeva temple in Bahena village, Kulu.
77. Dhanesvari Devi temple (front view), Nithar Dhanah, Kulu.
78. Dakhani Mahadeva temple, Nirmand, Kulu.
79. Detail of carving on the left doorjambs (lowermost niches), Dakhani Mahadeva temple.
80. Detail of carving on the right doorjambs (lowermost niches), Dakhani Mahadeva temple.
81. Detail of carving on the lintels of Dakhani Mahadeva temple.
82. Detail of carving on the lintels of Dakhani Mahadeva temple, Nirmand.
83. Same as above.
84. Detail of carving on the lowermost niches of jambs of the above temple.
85. Carved doorway to the sanctum sanctorum, Candika Devi temple, Nirmand.
86. Dhanesvari Devi temple (side view), Nithar Dhanah, Kulu.
88. Jogesvara Mahadeva temple in Dalasa village, Kulu.
89. Kotesvara Mahadeva temple in Koti village, Simla.
90. Doorway to the sanctum sanctorum and carved wooden pillars, Kotesvara Mahadeva temple.
91. Details of the carved panels of the wooden gallery above the sanctum sanctorum, Bahena Mahadeva temple.
92. Detail of the right jamb of the doorway to the above temple.
93. Detail of the left jamb of the doorway to the above temple.
94. Detail of carved motifs on the panels enclosing the mandapa of the above temple.
95. Carved wooden window in the sidewall of the sanctum sanctorum of the above temple.
96. Same as above.
97. Spirals, tendrils, elephants etc. - motifs carved on the wooden beams running through the walls of the above temple.
98. Mananesvara temple, Manan village, Simla.
99. Carved doorjambs and pillars in the interior of the above temple.
100. Detail of the carved ceiling in the above temple.
102. Doorway to the above temple.
103. Detail of the door-lintel of the above temple.
104. Surya, the sun god, occupying the central niche (lalatabimba) on the overdoor of the above temple.
105. Vayu, the god of wind, flanking Surya - detail from the door lintel of the above temple.
106. Agni, the god of fire, flanking Surya - detail from the door lintel of the above temple.
107. Visnu vaikunthamurti seated on a padmasana - detail from a niche on the doorjamb of the above temple.
108. Same as above.
109. Dancing Siva and Sakti - detail from one of the ceiling panels in the above temple.
110. Gandharvas and apsaras - detail from another ceiling panel in the above temple.
111. Hanuman perched on his coiled tail in the court of Ravana - detail from the ceiling panel in the above temple.
112. Trivikrama, one of the incarnations of Visnu - detail of the window panel in the above panel.
113. The Buddha being assaulted by Mara and his daughters and army - detail from ceiling panel in the above temple.
114. Double triangular gable divided by a horizontal band and enclosing a trefoliated arch from the Sun temple in Martand, Kasmir (for comparison).
115. Plan of Alchi chos-khor (monastic complex), Ladakh.
116. Triangular gable in the courtyard of the du-khang, Alchi.
117. Carved doorway to the du-khang, Alchi.
118. Facade of the sum-tsek temple, Alchi.
119. Detail of carving on the upper storey of the facade, Sumtsek temple, Alchi.
120. Shah Hamadan mosque, Srinagar, Kashmir.
121. The arched way leading to the entrance of the above mosque.
122. Shah Hamadan mosque: main elevation.
123. Shah Hamadan mosque: cross section.
124. Upper storey (facade) of the Shah Hamadan mosque.
125. Shah Hamadan mosque: ground plan (right side) and plan of the first floor (left side).
126. Wooden pillar, perforated jalis (screens) and panelling on interior walls in Shah Hamadan mosque.
129. Jama Masjid: details of carved brackets and balcony panels.
130. Jama Masjid: north spire (right) and south spire (left).
131. Wooden pillar and eaves (detail) in the interior of Jama Masjid.
132. Ground plan of Jama Masjid.
133. A view of the interior of Jama Masjid.
134. Detail of the facade (upper storey) of the Pampur mosque, Kashmir.
135. Detail of the facade (ground floor) of the Pampur mosque.
136. Side wall of the Pampur mosque showing the disposition of wooden beams and bricks.
137. Combination of wood and stone in Himachal wooden temples and residential houses.
138. Combination of wooden beams and bricks in Kasmiri sacred and secular structures.
141. The local house of Devidayal in Sarsei village, Kulu district.
142. The local house of Lajya Ram in Tisa village, Chamba district.
143. The local house of Dhani Ram in Gangtoli village, Rohru sub- tehsil, Simla hills.
144. The local house of Surjan in Sangla village, Nichar sub-tehsil, Kinnaur.
145. The local house of a Kasmiri pandit in Habba kadal, Srinagar, Kashmir.
146. Narasingha, a protective device placed on the roof top of Devidayal's house, Kulu.
147. Detail of projecting balcony of the above house.
148. Typical arched balconies of Kulu residential houses.
149. Floral motifs carved on the balconies of Chamba residential houses.
150. A notched ladder - such ladders are used all over Himachal Pradesh.
151. A typical dwelling house of a well-to-do landowner in Kinnaur.
152. Detail of carved panels from a bow-window (bukharca) of the residential house in Srinagar selected by us for our special study.
154. An elaborately carved window modelled after the temple windows from residential house in Kulu valley.
155. A carved cypress-shaped pillar supporting the wooden ceiling of a residential house in Chamba.
156. Rampur palace in Rampur Bushahr, Simla hills.
157. The pavilion in the courtyard of Rampur palace.
158-159. Carved balcony panels on the facade of the Rampur palace.
160. The jharokha type wooden pavilion used by Bushahr rajas for listening to the appeals of their subjects and narrow windows in Rampur palace - typical features of Rajput architecture.
161. Facade of the Naggar castle, Kulu.
162. Side view of the Naggar castle.
163. Carved door depicting four princes, Brahmaur state kothi, Chamba.
164. A king dallying with a lady: a carved panel with a secular theme from the above kothi.
165. Detail of the porch depicting Brahma, Visnu and Siva - this porch once adorned the above kothi.
166. Detail of the porch depicting Rama, Sita, Laksamana and Hanuman, Brahmaur state kothi.
167. The Buddha in bhumisparsamudra, Lahul or Ladakh, 9th-10th century A.D.

168. Vajrapani seated on a padmasana, Carang monastery in Kinnaur; 10th century A.D.

169. The Buddha flanked by female figures - a relief panel from Tabo (Spiti) in Kasmiri style; 9th - 10th centuries A.D.

170. The Goddess Kali, a sculpture in folk style near Kusumpti, Simla hills.

171. Siva and Parvati, Nirth village, Simla hills.

172. Thakurdwara in Mirmand village - on the wooden pillar (extreme right) are fixed carved panels similar to pl. No. 173.

173. A carved panel showing the worship of Sivalinga in a village temple and scenes from everyday life in a Himachal village.

174. Detail of the wooden pillar shown in pl. No. 172 showing specimens of other panels.