ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I gratefully acknowledge the constant encouragement and overall guidance given during the period of this work by my guide Smt. Anjali Merh, Head Department of Dance, M.S.University of Baroda; help given by Dr. S.S.Merh, Head of the Department of Geology by making available the various facilities in his Department and in particular the help given by his colleague Dr. M.P.Patel in the preparation of the thesis.

No work of the nature of the present thesis can ever be undertaken by an individual without the assistance of several learned persons and performing artistes in the field of dance. I gratefully acknowledge the help received in various ways from the following persons:

Dr.Smt. Kapila Vatsyayan for suggesting the methodology and clarifying several concepts; her magnum opus Classical Indian Dance in Literature and the Arts providing a model to base my researches in the field of the dance-dramas; Shri Mohan Khokar, acting Secretary, Sangeet Natak Akademi for inspiring me to conduct the field work and documentation revered Dr. V. Raghavan for giving valuable guidance and suggestions and his innumerable articles, papers, books and writings, which have also provided the source material; Smt. Rukmini Devi, Smt. Sarada, the Head of Research Department, Kalakshetra; Mr. & Mrs. V.D.Swamy of Melattur, Shri Balu Bhagavatar, G. Swaminathan, S. Natarajan, members of the performing groups of Bhagvata Mela Nataka at Melattur; and artistes of Theperumanallur village.
Shri Thandav Krishna from Vijaywada for accompanying me and explaining the salient features of Kuchipudi dance-dramas, Padmshri Vedantam Satyam, the Secretary Shri Anjaneyalu and P.V.G. Krishnasarma, Principal Siddhendra Kalashetra of Kuchipudi village; all the members of Venkataram Natya Mandali, the Kuchipudi artistes of the village for their hospitality, Vempatti Chinna Satyam, Nataraj Ramakrishna, Sampathkumar of Vizianagaram, C.V.V. Prasad, Smt. Sumati Kaushal, Shri C.R.Acharyalu, Shri Prahladsharma, the Andhra Pradesh Sangeet Natak Akademi and in particular Shri K.R. Paramahamsa, the former Special Officer of the Akademi.

The authorities of the Saraswati Mahal Library, Tanjore, for permitting to consult the manuscripts of the Kuravanji; Mahamahopadhyay U.V. Swaminath Iyer Library; the Kalakshetra artistes; the renowned dancers Mrinalini Sarabhai, Vaijayantimala, Kamla, Padma Subrahmanyam Shri Vidvan Kitappa, Krishna Rao Mahadik, Smt. F.K. Tilakam, the authorities of Brihadishwara temple Tanjore Tiruvaaur temple, Smt. Rajlakshmi, Vidvan Kuppaiah Pillai, Govindaraj, Mahalingam and Kalyansundaram Pillai of Tiruvudamarudur; Vazhuvvoor Ramaiah Pillai and Tamil Isai Sangam.

For photographs Shri Subhodchandra, who accompanied me in 1970 to the centres of dance-drama and for making excellent prints.

To Smt. Madhuri Desai and Shri Soli Batliwala, Trustees, Bhulabhai Memorial Institute for their financial assistance and scholarship without which this work could not have been undertaken; Vasuketu Foundation for advancing a loan scholarship.