ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The author wishes to express his deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Bhushan S. Deota, Reader, Department of Geology, under whose guidance the present study has been done. The thesis completion is the result of his constant moral support, inspiration and all round help not only during research but in every mode of life.

He is grateful to Prof. Nikhil. Desai, Head, Department of Geology, not only for providing departmental facilities but also for giving encouragement and all round support whenever required. He is also thankful to Prof S. Ganapathi, Incharge Head, for providing departmental facilities and support during his tenure.

The author wishes to thank Dr. Manoj A. Limaye, Reader and Dr. Alpa Sridhar, DST-Woman Scientist, for their constant encouragement, help, co-operation and guidance during the course of study.

He would like to extend his thanks to Space Applications Centre and especially Dr. Shailesh Nayak, former Group Director and Dr. Ajay, present Group Director of MWRG for providing opportunity and adequate financial assistance for the research work.

He is highly indebted to Dr. Anil V. Kulkarni, for his valuable support, and constant inspiration for completing the thesis. He would be failing in his duty if he does not acknowledge Dr. Ishmohan M. Bahuguna and Mr. B. P. Rathore for their immense support during field work and constructive suggestions during the research. He would also like to place on record the help and co-operation given by Mr. Sushilkumar Singh.

He is also extremely grateful to Dr. Vali and Dr. Srikanth of his company, ORG-GIS, without whom thesis completion would have been difficult. Also the author would like to acknowledge his sense of gratefulness for his colleague and friend Mr. Himanshu Pahawa, SASE-Chandigarh, for his timely help.

He also wishes to acknowledge the help rendered by SASE Manali, H.P. Remote Sensing, Shimla, and PWD Rakchham during his stay at guest house.

The author would like to acknowledge Prof. K. C. Tiwari and Dr. Dhananjay Sant for their constant encouragement and guidance during the research work. Also he would like to express his sincere thanks to all
