CONTENTS

PREFACE

INTRODUCTION

CHAPTER I The Background.

The Geographic Background: Size and Location.
Topography and Soil. Natural Regions.
Climate and Rainfall. Natural Products.

CHAPTER II Cooperation: General character.

CHAPTER III Cooperation in Many Lands

Cooperation in Europe, Americas, Asia, Australia, and New Zealand and Africa. International Cooperative Associations.
CHAPTER IX The Land Mortgage Banks.

Primary Land Mortgage Banks: Need...Pattern of Organisation...Objects...Area...Membership...Liability...Working Capital...Credit Policy...Policy for Recovery...Management...Audit and Supervision...Distribution of Profits.

Central Land Mortgage Banks: Need...Functions...State Critical Review and Suggestions for a Healthy Development of Land Mortgage Banking.

CHAPTER X The Cooperative Marketing.

The Need...Objects...Membership...Liability...Sources of Capital...Functions (i) Link with Credit Society (ii) Pooling of Produce (iii) Assembling (iv) Grading (v) Regulation of Markets (vi) Storage Facilities (vii) Processing (viii) Advertising (ix) Distribution Work...Working of various types of Cooperative Marketing Societies in Various States....Federal Integration of Cooperative Marketing Suggested...State Aid...Management...Audit, Supervision and Inspection...Division of Profits...Future.

CHAPTER XI Cooperation as an Aid to Production.

Cooperation as an Aid to Agricultural Production: Land Reclamation Societies...Land Colonisation Societies...Cooperative Farming Societies...Consolidation of Holdings Societies...Irrigation Societies...Cooperation and Rural Development...Crop Protection Societies...Stock Breeding Societies.

Cooperation as an Aid to Village Industries: Weavers' Societies...Forest Labourers' Societies...Leather Societies...Fisheries' Societies...Women's Societies...Other Industrial Societies...Central and Apex Industrial Cooperative Associations...Linking of Producers' and Consumers' Societies...Future of Industrial Cooperatives.
CHAPTER XII Consumers' Cooperation.
Consumers' Societies, Transport Cooperatives, Housing Cooperatives, Cooperative Societies for Electric Supply.

CHAPTER XIII Other Forms of Cooperation.
Better Living Societies (sanitation, medical, social uplift, education societies), Cooperative Insurance Societies, Multipurpose Societies.

CHAPTER XIV Cooperative Education, Training and Propaganda.
The Need for Cooperative Education, Training and Propaganda, Provincial Cooperative Institutes or Unions, Their Functions, audit, inspection, supervision, training, education, propaganda etc...
The All-India Cooperative Union, Universities and Cooperative Education, Research in Cooperation, Cooperation and Honorary Non-official Workers, Saraiya Committee's Views on Cooperative Education etc....
Federal Education System, Local Education Committee, District Education Committee, District Cooperative Youth and Women's Associations, State Education Committee, Youth Associations and Women's Guilds, All-India Cooperative Union, National Institute of Cooperative Studies and Research, National Cooperative Youth Association, National Cooperative Women's Association, and National Cooperative Publicity Service. Financing of the above Plan.

CHAPTER XV The Reserve Bank of India and the Cooperative Movement.
An evaluation of the Reserve Bank's Contribution to the Growth of the Indian Cooperative Movement, Lines on which the Reserve Bank can further help the Movement.
CHAPTER XVI State and the Cooperative Movement

State Aid in the Form of Taccavi Loans,
State Aid to Cooperatives in various forms such as Finance, Administrative and Technical Guidance, Preference in entrusting Distribution Work and Privileges and Concessions...
Government Attitude to the Cooperative Movement...
State Aid under the Five Year Plan.

CHAPTER XVII Retrospect and Prospect

Handicaps and Weaknesses of the Movement...
Achievements of the Indian Cooperative Movement...
Conditions of Success and Future Prospects.

APPENDIX I ALL-INDIA Progress of the Cooperative Movement since 1906-7.

APPENDIX II Indian Cooperative Movement by States 1949-50.

APPENDIX III A List of the Cooperative Institutions visited in the State of Bombay.

BIBLIOGRAPHY