ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My thanks would go primarily to my eleven year old son Ananda, who had to suffer my ignoring during the months of intense work, and who, wonder of wonders, supervised my inept operations on the computer.

My wife, Sravani, sometimes felt that brunt of frayed nerves during periods of tedium and fruitless industry, but peace and harmony prevailed - credit goes to her along with my gratitude.

I would acknowledge the immense help afforded by Indo-American Centre for International Studies (nee ASRC), Hyderabad, for making the entire volume of Wolfe's works as well as critical material on Wolfe available to me. The present study would never have materialized without the benign presence of IACIS.

My acknowledgement of indebtedness to Mr. Godfrey Pathaw hardly expresses the expertise and diligence he displayed in typing the thesis, as well as correcting my corrections.

I gratefully remember my respected teachers at Visva Bharati, Santiniketan, during my undergraduate and postgraduate classes, at CIEFL (Regional Centre, Shillong) during PGDTE and at NEHU during MPhil. Their effort and training has ultimately made my research work what it is.

Acknowledging the constant psychological support, the humane warmth and affection, to say nothing about the hours of painstaking guidance of Prof. Kailash Chandra Baral, would be conceit beyond measure, and hence rather deferred and kept in abeyance ...
