AKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the preparation of this study, first of all I would like to express my thanks to the Almighty Allah the most gracious and merciful who gave me the gift of expression, an insights needed for the completion of this work.

With a sense of utmost gratitude I would like to express my inner feeling for my beloved Ex-supervisor (Late) Dr. Iqbal Sabir who was a very humble, polite, a nice human being and who gave me all kind of support throughout my period of research. I can never forget his affectionate ways of academic guidance which he provided me all along till he breathed his last on 19th June 2010. I pray to Almighty Allah that his soul may rest in peace eternally.

I am deeply beholden to my supervisor Prof. B.L. Bhadani, who extended his full cooperation and every possible help to complete my work on time. I am also thankful for his guidance which he provided to accomplish my research work.

I am also beholden to express my thanks to Prof. Tariq Ahmed the Chairman and Coordinator Department of History for his help during my period of research, particularly the immense care and cooperation which he extended in issuing the permission letters to collect research materials scattered at different libraries.

I would like to express my warm and profound gratitude to Prof. Shan Mohammad, Director Sir Syed Academy whose work on Sir Syed and Aligarh Movement helped me immensely in many ways and his valuable suggestions assisted me in locating the primary sources in different libraries of India.

I am also grateful to my beloved teachers who helped me in many ways. Particularly I am thankful to Prof. R.A. Alvi who helped me in providing a copy of Hayat-i-Javed translated by him. I am also extremely grateful to Dr. Gulfishan Khan for her valuable suggestions and comments on my research topic. I am also thankful to Dr. Mohammad Sajjad for his critical advice on certain points of my research work.
I wish to recall my tremendous sense of obligation to Dr. S.A.N. Rezavi who made a lot of efforts in making me a good researcher and also helped me in writing the Research Papers during the early period of my research. I would also express my sincere thanks to Dr. Ali Athar, Dr. Syed Liaqat Hussain Moini, Dr. Hasan Imam, Dr. M.K. Pundhir, Dr. Perwez Nazir, Dr. V. K. Singh and Dr. O.P. Srivastava who were a source of inspiration during my period of research.

I am also grateful to Prof. Asghar Abass, Department of Urdu who helped me by providing his latest edited book on Sir Syed which was quite helpful in many ways for my research work. Special thanks are also to Professor Shabuddin of Urdu Department who provided me an important book on Aligarb Movement from his personal collection. It would be injustice if I would not mention the name of my respective teacher and Coordinator of Research Scholars Seminar Dr. Sumbul Haleem Khan for her moral support and encouragements which she offered me during the period of my research work.

I would like to express my thanks to all the Research Scholars of the Department of History for their critical comment, and for their unbounded help and cooperation throughout my research.

I am greatly thankful to the authorities of libraries of Department of History and staff for their help, particularly Banshidhar, Late Mazhar Husain, Aijaz, AfzalNabi Khan, Bhoor Mohammad, Chand, Sulaiman, Zubair, Nisar, MoinZaidi, Arshad, Nadeem, Faheem, SharafatBhai and Sharmaji.

I wish to thank Directors of the National Archives of India, Sir Syed Archives, Nehru Museum Library and South Asian Foundation Library, New Delhi, for their unbounded help for my research. I am also thankful to the staff of the Maulana Azad Library Aligarb and Sir Syed Section and Oriental Division of the Maulana Azad Library who provided me primary sources on my topic.

I would like to express my gratitude to my beloved parents whose affection, inspiration and timely encouragement enabled me to complete this work successfully. Especially I would like to mention the name of my elder sister Razia Begam, brother-in-law Shakil bhai, nieces, Dolly and Milly for their constant support and encouragements throughout my research. I am also grateful to my brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews for their constant support and inspiration which they provided during my research period. The support I got from my sister, Rabia Begum, Asia Khatoon, Noorjahan and Farzana Khatoon and the encouragement received from my brothers Ashraf bhai, Arshad bhai, Akram bhai, Hafiz Ahmad and Afroz were quite inspiring throughout my research.

I would also like to mention the name of my nephews and nieces and kids of my family particularly Hony, Kabkashan, Golu, Raj, Shammi, Sweety, Firdaus, Sony, Mony, Arif, Arman, Aasfi, Shibu, Taba, Khushboo, Bilal, Kashif, Asif, Kaif, Saif, Lucy and Sania who were a bounding source during my research.

Finally I wish to thanks first to Aijaz Ghani Khan who skillfully made the setting of the final draft of the thesis and secondly I wish to say thanks to H.K. Sharma for the consciousness he demonstrated with typing and for the patience he showed during typing my thesis without any hindrances. None of the above mentioned persons are, however, responsible for any errors or opinions expressed in the work.
