“In the Name of ALLAH the Most Beneficent and Merciful”

This study has reached its culmination due to the support, encouragement, motivation and help of numbers of individuals. First, I bow in reverence to the Almighty “ALLAH” Omnipotent and Omnipresent for it is indeed. His blessing which provided me enough zeal to complete this work.

Next I feel immense pleasure to venerate and express sound perception of gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Dr. Saghir Ahmad Ansari, Dept. of Agricultural Economics & Business Management, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for his vigilant guidance, sustained interest, healthy criticism, encouragement and valuable suggestions throughout the course of work. He always spared his precious time for the draft from time to time and making valuable suggestions for improvement. Above all and the most needed, he provided me unflinching encouragement and support with out which the length of the systematic and organised plan of study and supremely the deep study of my research work would have been impossible. I am indebted to him more than he knows.
