Significance of the study

Objectives of the study

Hypotheses

Database and Methodology

Organization of the Work

CHAPTER I- GEOGRAPHICAL PROFILE OF STUDY AREA 19-48

1.1 Physical Setting

1.1.1 Geomorphic Units

1.1.1.1 The Ganga-Yamuna Upland

1.1.1.2 The Ganga Tract

1.1.2 Structure and Relief

1.1.3 Drainage

1.1.4 Lakes/Depressions

1.1.5 Ground Water

1.1.6 Climatic Characteristics

1.1.7 Soils

1.1.8 Natural Vegetation

1.2 Demographic Setting

1.2.1 Growth of Population

1.2.2 Population Distribution

1.2.3 Population Density
1.2.3 Population Density
1.2.4 Population and Occupied Houses and Household
1.2.5 Population Characteristics
1.2.6 Literacy
1.2.7 Occupational Structure
1.3 Cultural Setting
1.3.1 General Land Use
1.3.2 Land Holding
1.3.3 Irrigation
1.3.4 Cropping Pattern
1.3.5 Chemical Fertilizers

Chapter II SPATIAL ORGANIZATION OF SETTLEMENT 49-67

2.1 Growth Pattern of Settlements
2.2 Density and Size of Settlement
2.3 Size of settlements - Area and Population
2.4 Pattern by Geometric Space interrelationship
2.5 Spacing of Settlements

CHAPTER - III SPATIAL ANALYSIS OF DISTRIBUTION OF SOCIO-ECONOMIC FACILITIES 68-127

3.1. Education
3.1.1.1 Primary School
3.1.1.2 Middle School
3.1.1.3 Secondary School
3.1.1.4 Senior Secondary School
3.1.1.5 College
3.1.1.7 Other Educational facilities

3.1.2 Health Facilities
3.1.2.1 Registered Medical Practioners (RMP'S) Clinic
3.1.2.2 Public Health Centre
3.1.2.3 Dispensary
3.1.2.4 Child Welfare Centre
3.1.2.5 Family Welfare Centre
3.1.2.6 Nursing Home
3.1.2.7 Hospital

3.1.3 Communication Facility
3.1.3.1 Post Office
3.1.3.2 Telegraph Office
3.1.3.3 Post and Telegraph
3.1.3.4 Telephone facility

3.1.4 Transport
3.1.4.1 Railway Station
3.1.4.2 Bus stand
3.1.4.3 Transport patterns
3.1.4.4 Accessibility to Transport Facility

3.1.5 Recreational Facilities
3.1.5.1 Cinema or Video hall
3.1.5.2 Public Library
3.1.5.3 Sports complex and club
3.1.5.4 Stadium and Auditorium

3.1.6 Credit Facility
3.1.6.1 Commercial Bank
3.1.6.2 Cooperative Bank
3.1.6.3 Credit Societies

3.1.7 Public Administrative Service
3.1.7.1 Village development officers centre
3.1.7.2 Block Headquarter
3.1.7.3 Tehsil Headquarter
3.1.7.4 District Head Quarter

3.1.8 Agricultural Facilities
3.1.8.1 Agriculture Seed Store
3.1.8.2 Fertilizer storage
3.1.8.3 Pesticide Store
3.1.8.4 Agricultural service centre
3.1.8.5 Cold storage
3.1.8.6 Seed Development Centre
3.1.8.7 Soil Testing Centre
3.1.9 Market facility
   3.1.9.1 Haat
   3.1.9.2 Agriculture Mandi
   3.1.9.3 Govt. purchase centre
   3.1.9.4 Sale Purchase cooperative Society
   3.1.9.5 Fair Price Shop
3.1.10 Dairy and veterinary services
   3.1.10.1 Veterinary Hospitals
   3.1.10.1 Milk Collection Centre.
   3.1.10.3 Artificial Breeding Centre

Chapter IV  REGIONAL DISPARITIES IN THE LEVEL OF SOCIO-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

4.1 Methods Used for Computing Levels of Development:

   Median Population Threshold (MPT)

4.2 The Concept of Composite Z-Score

4.3 Levels of Development of Educational Facilities

4.4 Levels of Development of Health Facilities

4.5 Levels of Development of Communication Facilities

4.6 Levels of Development of Transportation Facilities

4.7 Levels of Development of Recreational Facilities

4.8 Levels of Development of Livestock Facilities

4.9 Levels of Development of Agriculture Facilities

   4.9.1 Relationship between Agricultural facilities and Agricultural crop productivity

4.10 Levels of Development of Market Facilities

4.11 Levels of Development of Credit Facilities

4.12 Levels of Development of Administrative Facilities

4.13 Disparities in the levels of socio-economic developments
Chapter V  SYNOPTIC VIEW OF ARANIYA BLOCK – A PROSPECT OF PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

5.1 Education facility
5.2 Health facility
5.3 Communication facility
5.4 Transport facility
5.5 Credit facility
5.6 Veterinary facility
5.7 Agriculture facility
5.8 Market facility
5.9 Spatial interaction and organization of central places
5.10 Identification of Central Places
5.11 Relationship between centrality score and total population of central places
5.12 Delineation of Service area or Zone of influence 5.13 Complementary Region of second order central places
5.14 Spatial organization of central place
5.15 Relationship between centrality score and Dependent population
5.16 Relationship between centrality score and dependent area

Chapter VI  ANALYSIS OF SPATIO-FUNCTIONAL GAPS AND PROPOSAL FOR A DIAGNOSTIC PLANNING

6.1 Spatio-Functional Gap (2001 and 2021)
6.1.1 Primary school
6.1.2 Middle School
6.1.3 Secondary School
6.1.4 Other educational facility
6.1.5 Health centre
6.1.6 Medical Practitioner’s Clinic:
6.1.7 Post Office
6.1.8 Telephone facility
6.1.9 Bus stop
6.1.10 Commercial Bank
6.1.11 Cooperative Credit Society
6.1.12 VDO Centre
6.1.13 Fertilizer Store
6.1.14 Fair Price Shop
6.1.15 Periodic Market/Haat
6.1.16 Milk Collection Centre

6.2 Diagnostic Planning for identified least developed Block - Araniya

6.3 Determination of optimal locations for proposed socio-economic facilities (2021)
