ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A PhD work is a consortium of blessings, contributions, ideas, opinions, reviews, suggestions, supervision and support of a number of Learned People. Therefore it gives the author a great pleasure in acknowledging all of them.

The author expresses sincere gratitude to the Research Supervisor Dr. Y. Vijaya Kumar, Principal and Professor of Mechanical Engineering, S.B.M. Jain College of Engineering, Bangalore, for his inspiring guidance, encouragement, continuous support and motivation during the course of research work. Despite his busy schedule he has always been kind enough and made himself available to clarify the doubts.

The author expresses special thanks to Dr. C. Umashankar, Professor, Department of O R and S Q C, Rayalseema University, Kurnool, for his inspiring ideas and encouragement during the period of this investigation.

The author is grateful to Dr. Y.R.Nagaraja, and Dr. M.R. Pranesha, Retired Professors, IIT, Chennai (IIT-M); and Prof. B. Narayanappa, Retired Professor, Bangalore Institute of Technology, Bangalore; with whom he had many fruitful discussions on the topic of this thesis.

The author expresses his sense of gratitude to all the members of RRM committee, Department of Mechanical Engineering, JNTUA, Ananthapuramu, for their suggestions during Research Review Meetings.
References have been made to various authors in the present text. Care has been taken to acknowledge the references, wherever it occurs. Any deviation from this is unintentional. The author wishes to extend thanks to all the quoted authors.

The author is grateful to his friends Dr. T.N. Sreenivasa, Principal, AMC College of Engineering, Bangalore, and Dr. K.N.Subramanya, Vice Principal, R.V. C.E. Bangalore, for their continuous support and encouragement.

The author owes a lot to his Parents, who encouraged and helped him at every stage of his personal and academic life. His mother Smt. H.R. Rangamani, whose blessings are solely responsible for his pedagogic pursuits, the author deeply misses his father late Sri V. Subbasetty, who is not with him to share this ecstasy. The author is grateful to his wife, daughter, brothers and sisters, for their patience and positive nature all through this investigation.

Above all, the author owes it all to the ALMIGHTY for granting him the health, strength, and wisdom, to undertake this research task and enabling him towards the completion of the same.

K.S.Lakshminarayana.
