AKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are many people whom I should thank for their help in the course of my research work.

First of all, I would like to thank the supervisor Dr. Shailendra Kumar Singh. I thank him for his support, incredible guidance, and valuable advices and for much interaction. His comments and regular push-ups encouraged me to work faster. He provided me the materials and valuable information those were of immense use. He encouraged me to participate in various linguistic related activities, seminars and workshops that grew my horizons of linguistic information. He gave a sufficient time, which can be taken as an example for boosting up the interaction among the guides and researchers. I am blessed to have such a wonderful guide.

Secondly, I would like to thank Prof. J. War for all the needful support. I thank her for providing me all possible support. She gave me some useful advices at the beginning of my research work for collection of data that proved to be useful. I owe my respect and admiration for her.

I would also like to thank Ms Barika Khyriem and Mr. Bijoy L. Dhanwar, lecturers in the Department of Linguistics, North Eastern Hill University for pointing out some of the points which I overlooked during my pre-submission seminar.

I would also like to thank all the staff members of my department who helped me in some or the other way in getting my work done.

I thank my informants; those are listed in the informants list and all those who I interviewed once or twice. I thank all the community members whom I approached. They were very helpful. I thank C. Amop Noklang, Rev. Paūshen, Asangla and other members of Phom Baptist Church Association (PBCA), who spared time with me despite their busy schedules.

I have a great regard for Mr. Among Phom and B. Henshet Phom as informants. They helped me in all the possible ways they could. I thank Angmaū Phom (Rocky), who was always with me during my field work. Because of him I never faced difficulty during the field work. He made sure that my stay was comfortable.

I thank my friend Hema for helping me in typing of the thesis.

I would like to thank Dr. Rekha Sharma and other staff of Speech Science Lab, Central Institute of Indian Languages, for helping me in spectrographic study of sounds.
I would also like to thank Prof. Rajesh Sachdeva for suggesting me to work on Phom language.

I am also thankful to the library staff of NEHU, CIIL; Mysore for providing the materials that I needed for my work.

Last but not the least; I express my heartiest love and affection for my family members. I thank all of them for being always there when I needed them. I dedicate this work to my late mother without her support I would not have been motivated to start my work.

I thank my husband Javed. I found him always at my back as a support when I needed him. He encouraged me through out the course of my research work. I thank him for being so patient and helpful when we went for the field work. He helped me a lot even in typing of the thesis. I can not imagine my work to be completed without him. He can be said to be the sole- mechanism behind all the activities.

Above all, I would like to thank the Almighty God for giving me all the strengths to complete my duty. HE helped me in coming out of all the hardships. I thank my God for surrounding me with all the people who guided, encouraged and helped me always and all the times.
