BIBLIOGRAPHY

(I) PRIMARY SOURCES

(A) WORKS BY EVELYN WAUGH:

(B) Waugh's Major Contributions to Books

(C) WAUGH'S MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO PERIODICALS

1. Fiction

"On Guard", Harper's Bazaar (London), 11 (December 1934), pp.32-34, 84, 86.

"Winner Takes All", Strand, 90 (March 1936), pp.530-539.

"Compassion", Month NS 2 (August, 1949), pp.79-98.

2. Non-Fiction

"In Defence of Cubism", Drawing, December, 1917.

"The Community Spirit", Lancing College Magazine, November, 1921, p.70.

"The Union" ("That Civilization has advanced since the Society first met"), The Isis, 5 March, 1924, p.9.

"Oxford and the Next War", The Isis, 12 March, 1924, p.10.
"Youth's Protest, the Right to Satisfy Oneself", a letter to a Father, The Sunday Times, 26 October, 1924, p. 11.

"The War and the Younger Generation", Spectator, 142 (13 April, 1929), pp. 570-571.

"Let us Return to the Nineties, but not to Oscar Wilde", Harper's Bazaar (London), 3 (November, 1930), pp. 50-51, 98.

"Rough Life", Virginia Quarterly Review, 10 (January, 1934), pp. 70-71.

"Impression of Splendour and Grace", Catholic Herald, 3 June, 1938, pp. 1.

"Fan-Fare", Life, 20 (8 April, 1946), p. 53.

"What to Do With the Upper Classes", Town and Country, 101 (1 September, 1946), p. 141.

"Here They are, the English Lotus Eaters", Daily Mail, 20 March, 1962.

(D) LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

"Mr. Waught in the Catholic Novelist", Luckett's Register, March, 1948.

"Change in the Church", Catholic Herald, 7 August, 1964, p. 4.

(E) INTERVIEWS

(F) WAUGH'S LETTERS AND DIARIES

(G) ESSAYS, ARTICLES AND REVIEWS

(II) SECONDARY SOURCES

(A) BOOKS ON EVELYN WAUGH

---

B) BOOKS ON CRITICAL AND GENERAL STUDIES

——. New Yorker. 5 January 1946, pp. 71-74.

(B) JOURNALS

Benedict, Stewart H. "The Candide Figure in the Novels of Evelyn Waugh," Papers of the Michigan Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters, 48 (1963), pp. 685-690.

Smith, Lady Eleanor. "Who are They?" Sunday Dispatch, 23 September 1928, p. 4.

