ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A study of the development and problems of higher education in Barak Valley and Karbi Anglong areas of Assam has been carried out successfully under the guidance of Dr. A. Henia, Head of the Department of Education, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong. I express my deep and sincere gratitude to her for her constant guidance and inspiration and above all the words of encouragement and support, which added to the success of my work. I am also thankful to the teachers of the department for giving me various suggestions, which proved to be very useful.

My sincere thanks also goes to the Principals, Teachers and Students of various Colleges of Barak Valley and Karbi Anglong. The Head of the departments, Teachers, Students of various departments of Assam University, Silchar, who has provided me with the necessary data and information's.

I would like to extend my thanks to Professor S.C. Saha, the Vice-chancellor of Assam University for giving me useful information's and providing the necessary documents / reports of Assam University, enabling me to thus quickly complete my work.
I also take the opportunity to express my thanks to Shri. U.C. Das, Deputy Director of Higher Education, Assam, for providing with all the necessary information related to Administration and finance, and other aspects of higher education in the state.

I am also thankful especially to the librarians of Education department, NEHU and ICSSR, Shillong for helping me out with various study materials, documents, journals related with my study.

Grateful acknowledgement is also due to friends and relations who helped me in many ways throughout my study period.

I would also like to place on records to my parents and above all my husband, who constantly encouraged and helped me out in many ways, throughout the entire period, without which I would have to face many difficulties.

Last but not the least, I am grateful to my children for being so patient all along and bearing with me in all the difficult times.

Shillong