ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the following persons and institutions for their help in the successful completion of my research work.

- To Dr. A. Chellaperumal, my supervisor and guide, whose constant encouragement and perservering efforts in guiding me throughout this research endeavour.

- To the Paniya Community in Wayanad who helped me by sharing their valuable knowledge and insight on their life.

- To TUDI Institute, Wayanad especially Fr. Baby Chalil and Team who rendered their service in the fieldwork and data collection.

- To Prof. P.J. Thomas, Pazhassi Raja College, Pulpally, Dr. J.J. Pallath, Swam, Kannur, Dr. Raghavan Payyanad, Calicut University, for their creative interactions and suggestions during the course of my study.

- To Rev. Dr. A. Antonysamy S.J., Principal, the staff in Department of Folklore and FRRC, St. Xavier’s (Autonomous) College, Palayamkottai, for their timely help and providing library and archival facilities to the conduct of this study.

- To my Provincials Rev. Fr. John Manipadam and Rev. Fr. Joye James of Kerala Province for permitting me to do this research programme.

- To Rev. Dr. Antony, A. Pappuraj S.J., Rector, and the Jesuit Community at St. Xavier’s (Autonomous) College, Palayamkottai for all their support and encouragement to carry out this work successfully.

- To Nadopasana Music Academy Staff, Kerala, Mr. Renil, Wayanad and Mr. Nellai Jesurajan, Tirunelveli, for helping me to interpret the musical aspect of this study in a scientific manner.

- To my mother who inspired me to be with the weaker sections of the society, and to all my friends and relatives for their constant source of help, support and encouragement.

- Above all to the Lord Almighty for what I am today.