Acknowledgements

The present work is an outcome of my Doctoral Thesis entitled “Ryot Sabha in Assam: A study of Peasant Nationalism (1900-1947)”.

In presenting this thesis, first of all, I must express my deep sense of gratitude to Manorama Sharma, Professor and Head, Department of History, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong, for supervising and guiding the work in the present form. Her inspiration and able guidance, in fact, sustained me in my research work.

I also acknowledge my heartiest gratitude to all the teachers, Department of History, North Eastern Hill University for giving me encouragement to prepare the thesis. In this opportunity, I record my gratefulness to all the authors whose works I consulted in preparing the thesis.

I would like to express my thanks to National Archive of India, New Delhi, Nehru Memorial and Museum Library, New Delhi, ICHR Library, New Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, New Delhi, North Eastern Hill University Central Library, Shillong, Library of Anthropological Survey of India, Shillong, ICSSR Library, Shillong, District Library, Shillong, State Archive, Guwahati, Department of Historical Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, K.K. Handique Library of Gauhati University, Guwahati, Cotton College Library, Guwahati, ICHR Library, Guwahati, Benudhar Sarmah Library, Rehabari, Guwahati, Tribal Studies Library, Khanapara, Guwahati, Amalendu Guha’s personal Library, Guwahati, Durlov Mahanta’s personal Library, Guwahati, Ismail Hussain’s personal Library, Guwahati, Omio Kumar Das Library, Guwahati, Libraries of the Colleges of Mariani, Jagannath Barooah and Cinnamara, Jorhat, District Library, Jorhat, Tocklai Experimental Research Centre Library, Jorhat and Asom Sahitya Sabha Library, Jorhat for assisting me to collect valuable materials from their respective institutions.

I would like to offer my heartiest thanks to Mr. Anil Ray Chaudhury, veteran Communist Worker, Guwahati, Mr. Tileswar Bordoloi, Jorhat, Mr. Debeswar Doloi, Jorhat, Mr. Bhuban Barua, Titabor, Late Hiteswar Neog (recently late), Southern part of Jorhat, Mr. Indreswar Bhuyan, Garamur Satra, Majuli, freedom fighters who gave me rare opportunity to interview and discussion in course of my collection of research materials. Their help and sympathy can not be expressed in words only.

I am also extremely grateful to my father Mr. Ananda Saikia, who ever stood by me to bring out the present shape of my research on the Ryot Sabha.

I would also like to express my grateful to my mother Mrs. Champawati Saikia, two sisters Mrs. Anjumoni Hazarika and Mrs. Anushree Baruah, brother-in-laws Dr. Jugal Hazarika and Mr. Sunil Baruah, my wife, Pallabi Saikia, Mr. Bijit Borah, Dr. Anil Borah, Mr. Binod Kr. Gogoi, Head, Department of English, Mariani College, Mr. Ajit Dutta, Mr. Rahul Sanskritayan Majumder and Dr. Runjun Barman, Dr. Parag Nath, Mr. Ananda Hazarika, Dr. Bolin Hazarika, Mr. Bhupendra Nath Goswami, Mr. Binoy Saikia, Mr. Nipul Saikia, Mr. Labo Kr. Dutta, Mr. Rajen Hazarika, Mr. Pradip Gogoi, Dr. Utpal Hazarika, Mr. S.C. Saha, Mr. B.C. Bhuyan and Mr. Jugal Sharma, all of whom were ever constant source of inspiration to me during the days of my research.

I am grateful to the Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi for awarding me Junior Research Fellowship for a period of two years for working out on this research work.

I am also thankful to professor B.S. Mipun, Department of Geography, NEHU, for drawing the maps accompanying the thesis.

My thanks are due to Miss Shayista Baruah, Research Scholar, Department of Political Science, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong who looked into the proof of my chapters before it was sent to finalise.

Finally, I offer my sincere thanks to UP-TO-DATE Computer, Shillong for taking up the task of computerization with much care and patience.

Shillong
Date

Anjan Saikia