ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Let me begin by expressing my gratitude to God Almighty, who has been the main stay in the big and small things of the entire study.

I acknowledge with sincere gratitude, the inspiring guidance, scholarly advice, whole-hearted co-operation and unceasing inspiration of Dr. K.V Indulekha, M.sc, Ph.D, Reader in Child Development, St. Teresa's College, Ernakulam also member, Research Board of Advisers American Biographical Institute, INC under whose careful supervision this study was undertaken. She has been an unfailing and incessant support in my research work and is also my mentor and critic.

I would like to thank Sr. Tessa the Principal of St. Teresa's College, Ernakulam and also the former Principal Sr. Emeline for their special encouragement and support in my endeavour.

I record my immense gratitude to Dr. Immanuel Thomas, Reader, Department of Psychology, Kerala University, Dr. Ommen Tharakan, former Head of the Department of Psychology, Calicut University and Dr. C. B. Asha, Professor, Calicut University for their valuable suggestions in the construction of the tools for the present study.

Thanks are also due to Mr. H. Krisha Iyer, Rtd. Principal Scientist, Central Institute of Fisheries Technology, Kochi and Dr. Ajith Kumar, Director, Centre for Research & Consultants, for their timely help in the statistical analysis of the data.

I am filled with gratitude for the goodwill shown by the Heads of all the Nursery Schools from which the data for the research work was collected and also for patience and co-operation of the tiny tots and their parents in providing the much wanted information.
I make use of this opportunity to thank the library staff of the British Council Library, Thiruvanathapuram, The National Information Centre of S.N.D.T. Women's University, Bombay, The University Libraries of Kottayam, Calicut and Kerala, St. Teresa's College Library Kochi, for providing access to the available literature.

I am grateful to Prof. T. K. Balakrishnan former Head of the Department of English, Maharaja’s College, Ernakulam, who helped me a lot with some useful linguistic suggestions.

I am deeply indebted to my mother, Prof. Sarala Devi. J., for her incessant co-operation and boundless encouragement throughout the research work. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my father Mr. K.A.S. Panikkar and brother Mr. Abhishek S. Panikkar for their support and unstinted help. Along with them I thank my mother-in-law Mrs. Kamalam D. Menon who helped me a lot in my endeavour.

I am grateful to my husband Mr. Mahesh Menon, who stood by me in my endeavours, for his co-operation and understanding without which the successful completion of this research work would have been impossible.

Special mention has to be made of my beloved son – one and half year old Adithyc, who had to adjust a lot with my busy schedule.

I utilize this opportunity to place on record my sincere thanks to Mr. Sony of Twinkle, South Kalamassery for the neat execution of the word processing and documentation of this thesis work.

Before I conclude, I must admit that it is difficult to express the gratitude investigator feels for all other well wishers and friends whose names are not mentioned here, but whose help was always available for channelising, prosecuting and improving the study.

Anjali S. Panikkar