ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

At the very outset, I owe a profound debt of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. R. Khongsdier, Reader, Department of Anthropology, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong for his timely counsel, unfailing courtesy, proficient attention to each detail and infinite patience which enabled me to complete the present task. In addition, Dr. R. Khongsdier deserves the highest praise for his forbearance in coping up with the colossal number of alterations throughout my prolonged and demanding pursuit.

To Prof. H. Lamin (Head of Department) for providing help in all aspects and the necessary facilities.

To Prof. T. B. Subba, for his unhesitating help and personal encouragement through the years.

To the faculty members and the non-teaching staffs of the Department and all my friends and colleagues in the Anthropological Survey of India, NERC, Shillong, I thank them for their manifold support.

To the people of Tinghmun, Zohmun, Sakawrdai and Ratu, Aizawl District, Mizoram for their unremitting help and warm hospitality throughout the study.

Last but never the least to my family and uncle, I owe a debt for bearing with me the innumerable hardships, but at the same time encouraging me to complete my work.

And above all to God Almighty, for everything.
