Acknowledgment

I express my deep indebtedness to my teacher and guide Dr. (Mrs.) Sujata Miri, Reader, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong for her invaluable guidance and advice. She went through the manuscript giving valuable suggestions and corrections, and made available materials for use without which my dissertation could not have been presented in this form.

I owe a great sense of gratitude to Dr. Mrinal Miri, Professor, Department of Philosophy, N.E.H.U., Shillong for giving me the chance of studying in this University and for his inspiring interest in my development.

I am thankful to all my teachers and friends who encouraged me in this work.

It was a privilege to get primary informations from many elders of the Ao Nagas, Longrikaba, former chairman of the Ao Tribal Council, Pangejemba; and Imodangba, Mapukaba and others who are holding the Ao Naga Tribal Religion.

I extend my thanks to E.P. Philemon for typing the dissertation.
