ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The investigator, at the outset, expresses her profound gratitude to her guide Dr. R. Bhattacharjee Reader, Department of Education, North-Eastern Hill University, who supervised her work so meticulously at every stage without which this work would not have materialised.

She acknowledges her sincere gratefulness to Dr. M.A. Sudhir, Head, Department of Education and other teachers of the Department who extended their co-operation in various ways in course of the work.

Her thanks are equally due to the Principals of the various schools who have permitted her to collect data in their respective institutions as well as the English teachers for extending their kind co-operation and help in furnishing the required information without which the whole attempt would have been in vain.

She is also thankful to the librarians of the CIEFL, State Central Library, Meghalaya and North-Eastern Hill University Central Library for granting necessary facilities.

The investigator expresses her gratitude to the Principal of Don Bosco College, Tura, for his co-operation and help rendered.
She acknowledges her thanks to Dr. N.P. Goel, for getting the manuscript of the thesis computer-printed within a very short time.

Lastly, she will fail in her duty if she does not acknowledge the encouragement and help received from her husband, Mr. A. Paul, her mother, Mrs. P. Roy and other members of the family.

Sonali Roy