ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With immense pleasure, I take this privilege to express my heart-felt gratitude and indebtedness to my supervisor Prof. R. Bhattacharjee, Department of Education, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong, who meticulously supervised, encouraged and constantly guided me at every stage of my work without which the study would not have been in the present form. I am grateful for his fatherly care and guidance.

I express my sincere gratitude to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for granting me Junior Research Fellowship which enable me to pursue this study without any financial constraint.

I am sincerely grateful to several Education Officers of the State, Heads, Women Teachers and Students of various Secondary Schools and Colleges for their kind co-operation and help in supplying the needful data.

I am immensely grateful and indebted to my friend Mr. M. Khongsai for his generous and enduring help in various ways, particularly, in typing and printing the work without which the study would not have been feasible.

I am thankful to my cousin brother Shri. J. Lhungdim (F.O.) NEHU for his kind help. I also thanks all my brothers, sisters, relatives and friends for their moral support. My special thanks also go to my friends Ms. Grace Panmei and Ms. Nakhru who always rendered kind hospitality and humble help, in times of need.

I extend my deepest thanks and gratitude to my parents Mr. Zamngam Baite and Mrs. Phaljalam Baite for their kind love and support, constant encouragement and inspiration throughout my academic pursuit.

Above all, I thank and praise the Lord for loving and blessing me and enabling me to accomplish this study successfully.

Shillong.
