I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my teacher and supervisor, Professor AC Mohapatra, Department of Geography, NEHU for his practical insight and approachability which has been a wonderful resource in meeting the demand of the research I have undertaken. In my desperate moments, he has been a source of encouragement and his timely words and candid professional support rekindled my dying enthusiasm during the course of my work. Working under his sound supervision has been a greatly rewarding experience.

I acknowledge my thankfulness to Mr. RL Chhuanthanga, office worker, Department of Geography, NEHU, Mr. Lawrence Chhuanthanga, Lecturer of Government Serchhip College, Mr. Lalhimnglnua, N. Vanlaiphui, Mr. FC Vanlalngaia Teacher, Hrangturoz High School, N. Vanlaiphai and Mr. Lalrinnunga Hmar, Research Scholar, Department of History, NEHU, Shillong who helped me in collecting needful data. My sincerest thanks are due also to friends like Dr. Lalliansanga, Dr. Lalthlamuana Pachuau, KC Lalmalsawmzauva and many others whose honest corrections and good wishes have gone a long way in the completion of my research work.

I place on the record my sincere gratitude to my parents, my sisters, brothers and other relative members of my family. I am particularly grateful to my sister Siamthangpuii, Teacher, Presbyterian School, N. Vanlaiphai, Rosiami, Hindi Teacher, Darlawn and Lalhlupuii, Staff Nurse, Khawlailung PHC and my brother Lalrintluanga who selflessly supported me financially throughout my study.

Above all, I thank the Almighty God for granting me good health and strength to accomplish this challenging assignment.

(R. LALMUANKIMA)

Dated 14.9.2009, Shillong