ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

"An effort is half its value without a spring hand to it."

This work is but one such effort, which would not have been successful without a helping hand timely lent by people who I'd deem a privilege, to sincerely thank.

First and foremost, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to my Supervisors Prof. A.C. Sinha and Dr. I.L. Aier who have both tirelessly extended their constant encouragement, incredible guidance, inspiration and support to me at every step of my work. I sincerely thank them both for patiently going through all my drafts and helpfully commenting on each of them before this final work was ready.

I would also like to thank Prof. Nikhlesh Kumar, Head, Department of Sociology for encouraging me to move ahead with my work. To my esteemed teachers and colleagues of the Dept. of Sociology, Prof. C. Nunthara, Prof. C.L. Imchen, Dr. D.V. Kumar, Dr. A.K. Nongkynrih and Dr. B. Panda for having stood by me and sharing their insightful knowledge.

My warmest thanks to all the respondents not only for providing me with the relevant data required for presenting this work but also for their warmth and hospitality every time I visited them. I am also indebted to Mr. B. Nongdhar for his helpful suggestions in choosing my area of study. To the officials at the Forest Department, Government of Meghalaya and District Council who helped me with valuable statistical information and Official records, and generously gave their time to me. I am thankful to Mr. Godfrey for taking extra care while typing out my thesis.

Writing acknowledgements does not redeem oneself from indebtedness both personal and intellectual. I therefore take this opportunity to offer my deepest sense of gratitude to my father Mr. K.K. Muktan, who has been the main inspiration behind this work. If there is one person I would like to dedicate this work to, it would definitely be my father. Thank you Daddy!

I also thank my mother for her faith in me, my only brother and sister-in-law, my two sisters and brothers-in-law and my dearest nephew and nieces, for their prayers. To Shem, the special person in my life, you have been my source of strength.

Last but not the least, I give all glory and honour to God almighty, the sole provider of all my needs.

REKHA M. SHANGPLIANG