At the very outset, I feel it as an honour and privilege to express my deep felt gratitude, to my guide Dr. S. Shashidhar, Professor & Director, School of Biosciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, for his invaluable, sincere and relentless guidance at every single stage in my work with tremendous patience, care and concern.

I am very much obliged to all the teachers of the department for their constant support and encouragement.

My thanks are in large measure due to the non-teaching staff of the department, especially to Mr. T. S. Bose and Ms. S.L. Reji (Medical technologists) for their kind cooperation and timely help.

I'm particularly indebted to each of my friends, Dr. Sreekumar, Dr. Kesavachandran, Dr. Harikumaran Nair, Mr. Arun A. Rauf and Ms. Sindhu for having been so wonderfully kind and thoughtful, helping me patiently and skilfully in innumerable ways. My heartfelt thanks are due to my friends in the Physiological Chemistry Lab, Dr. Susan Benoy, Ms. Betzy Mathew, Ms. Indu. G. Nair, Ms. Remya, Ms. Suprabha and Lecturers, Dr. B. Geetha, Ms. Jayashree, Dr. Reethamma K.V. and Ms. Pankajam for their invaluable co-operation and help in the midst of their own work. Words will not suffice to describe splendid help received from all the researchers of the department.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Krishna Iyer, Rtd. Scientist, CIPT, who helped me whole heartedly in dealing with the statistical aspect of this work.

I'm also grateful to the authorities of CIPT, who helped me in supplying specimens necessary for the study.
Words cannot express my heartfelt gratitude towards late Prof. K. Lakshmikutty Amma whose guidance and encouragement extended to me will always remain unforgettable.

With gratitude I acknowledge Mahatma Gandhi University for providing me research fellowship for the study.

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Mr. Srinivasa Venkatanathan for his sincere help and support.

Needless to say, this thesis would not have been possible without the untiring and enthusiastic help and invaluable moral support of my husband, that has left indelible expression in my mind. It goes without saying that this entire piece of work would not have been materialized, without the matchless love, warm impetus and mental courage received from my parents, sister and parents in law.

My faith in god helped me a lot to strengthen my mind for the fulfilment of my work,

Jyothi
