Acknowledgement

In the praise of Almighty Allah who bestowed on me the divine guidance to embark upon this task of keeping in realms of facts and events.

Prefacing this thesis has provided me with the much awaited opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude and admiration for my esteemed teacher and supervisor Dr. S. M. Jawed Akhtar, Reader, Department of Economics. His experienced judgement, bountiful advice and constructive criticism, so lavishly endowed in this work, at all times and under all circumstances, have been the sine qua non in giving it the present and final form. To such a distinguished and dedicated teacher I give my sincere thanks and tender my heartfelt respects.

I express my deepest regards and gratitude to the Chairman, Prof. Ashok Mittal, and Prof. Abdul Wahab, Department of Economics, AMU, for their critical remarks and suggestions. Their constant guidance and advice are truly praise worthy.

It is my proud privilege and humble duty to acknowledge with gratitude, the help rendered to me by my teachers Mr. Abdul Mannan Siddiqui, (Rtd. Reader, Department of Economics), Prof. Syed Noman Ahamad, and Dr. Mohd. Abdus Salam, Reader, Department of Economics, AMU. Their benevolent guidance, sound suggestions and administrative help have gone way beyond the call of duty.

No words can thank Dr. Mohammad Shabbir Alam for sparing his valuable time for helping me. His patient listening to my problems and solving them as per need helped me to this final stage of work.
I am also obliged to all staff members of Seminar Library, Department of Economics, Department of Commerce, Maulana Azad Library, AMU, Aligarh, JNU; and NCEAR, New Delhi.

I am extremely thankful to my all friends and colleagues for their patience, co-operation, encouragement and moral support from time to time.

Finally, words will never be enough to express my gratitude to my father Mr. Naseem Ahmad, my mother Mrs. Nikhat Naseem, my brothers Mohd. Faisal Naseem and Yaseen Mazhar, and my sisters Lubna Arif and Sheeba Zaki for their blessings and moral support.
