ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to my teachers at Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh who taught me in L.L.B. and L.L.M. classes. I will never forget my distinguished teachers Late Professor Dr. Hafizur Rehman, S.J.D. (Yale, USA), the then Head & Dean, Faculty of Law and Late Professor Mohd. Ghaus who emerged as an authority on Constitutional Laws, Late Professor Ghulam Ahmad Khan, then the Head & Dean, Faculty of Law, Late Professor V.S. Rekhi who was the founder of National Law School, Bhopal, Late Professor Rehman Ali Khan, Bar at Law and Professor Qaiser Hayat who taught me the fundamentals of law, Constitutional Law and Criminal Law. Our teachers were very eminent and devoted to the academic work. They were also very sympathetic, helpful and were a source of inspiration.

I had a very successful innings in my profession and I had the privilege to serve the three Prime Ministers of India as their Chief Legal Advisor and I was the first Muslim with alleged communal background to have been appointed by the Hon'ble President of India as the Senior Counsel of Union of India to represent the Government of India at the Supreme Court. I had also privilege to appear on behalf of Chaudhary Charan Singh Ji, Ex-Prime Minister of India as his Chief Counsel in President of India's Election Petition (Shri Charan Singh vs. Shri Zail Singh, AIR 1984, SC). I had also privilege to appear against the then Prime Minister of India Mrs. Indira Gandhi on behalf of her daughter-in-law Mineka Gandhi in the probate case decided by the Delhi High Court (AIR 1984, DC, Mineka Gandhi vs. Indira Gandhi). I always discharge my duty as counsel honestly and with courage. I had also privilege to appear on behalf of Shri Raj Narain the Great socialist leader of India who defeated Mrs. Indira Gandhi in the court and also in the election held in 1977 in Raeberaily.

I am very fortunate that I appeared against the legendary lawyers of the last century like Mr. Ashok Sen who has been the former Law Minister of Govt. of India and Mr. Frank Anthony a philanthropist who founded many educational institution of very high standard and was the leading counsel on behalf of Mrs. Indira Gandhi before Shah Commission which was Inquiring into the access and atrocities committed by the then Prime Minister between 1975 to March 1977. I have learned law through the judges of the Supreme Court and the eminent advocates of the country.

This all happened due to the patronage which I received at Aligarh Muslim University from my teachers in the Faculty of Law. They created confidence at made me fearless. I am grateful to all those people who were kind to me in my tryst with destiny and I am now at the age of 65 after practicing law the most satisfied person with my little achievements. I have practice law for about 42 years and feel very happy with my career.

Every body discouraged me to complete my Ph.D. in law, this was the task which could not completed during last decades because of my professional occupations and also my persecution for my courage and my minority oriented struggle in life.

I had to go to jail under MISA and NSA several times for the restoration of minority character of Aligarh Muslim University and our struggle bore fruit and through Act of Parliament the Aligarh Muslim University has been declared as ‘an Institution of the choice of the Muslims of India which originated as MAO college and later incorporated by an Act of Parliament.

Now, it is the responsibility of the next generation to preserve the character of Aligarh Muslim University from future challenges because this institution founded by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan (Peace be upon him) has served the cause of the Muslims of the sub-continents. We came to Aligarh with empty hands and pockets and by the grace of God; we achieved everything by honest means.

I am also grateful to the present Vice-Chancellor, Mr. P.K. Abdul Azis who encourage me to complete my Ph.D work though at the age of 65, it has no meaning for me accept to finish my “unfinished” agenda of my life.

I am also grateful to my supervisor Professor Dr. Saleem Akhtar who is junior to me in the faculty of law as a student. He is very large hearted man and magnanimous in his approach and very respectful towards his senior. I am grateful to him that he did not put any hurdle in my work and was kind enough to extend me all possible cooperation in my work and he gave me wise advice to complete this thesis.
