ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It gives me an immense pleasure to acknowledge here the contributions and help rendered by many scholars in the completion of this research work. At the outset, I am highly grateful and indebted to Dr. K. Sivachithappa, Assistant Professor of Economics, University of Mysore, Post Graduate Centre, and Mandya who through his able guidance, comments and suggestions has helped me in the completion of this research study. He has been a source of constant encouragement and help right from the selection of the research topic till its completion.

I will be failing in my duty, if I do not mention the name of The Director, Department of Gandhian Studies, and the administrative staff of the University of Mysore. It was his constant encouragement that made me to venture into this work.

I acknowledge the help of the staff of the DIC and Women and Child Development, Mysore. They helped me in collecting data and necessary information for thesis work. I am also thankful to the staff of Library, University of Mysore for providing useful information.

I don’t find words to express my gratitude to my parents and my family members and my friends, without their support and healthy encouragement it would not have been difficult to complete the thesis work.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to the Faculty and Administrative staff of the Gandhian Studies, University of Mysore, and Mysore for providing me an opportunity to conduct the research for Ph.D degree in Gandhian Studies.
