ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am highly indebted to “Almighty” for enabling me to reach this destination.

During my time as a PhD student, I have met a lot of wonderful people from different disciplines and interest. You have brightened my time here by friendship and laughter, both at the lab and in leisure, and have given me support and encouragement whenever needed. I thank everyone who have generously shared your knowledge, provided thoughtful remarks and inspired me.

Words at my command are simply inadequate to express my sincere thanks and profound gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Cletus JM. D’Souza, DoS in Biochemistry, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, for his invaluable guidance, liberal attitude and encouragement during my research work. In fact, to work with him was a pleasurable, enriching and memorable experience of my life and I take this opportunity to pay my sincere thanks and best regards to him.

I sincerely thank the Director, Anthropological Survey of India, Ministry of Culture, Dept of Culture, and Government of India for providing me an opportunity to carry out the present investigation and with logistic support for the smooth completion of the present work.

Mere words fail to express my sense of gratitude to Dr. Sathyanarayana, Deputy Director, Anthropological Survey of India, Southern Regional Centre, Mysore for supporting me in completion of the present work.

I want to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. D Xaviour, RA, Dr. Raviprasad, RA, Dr. Chandrasekhar, RA, and Shri. Jayashankar Rao, Anthropologist, Anthropological survey of India, SRC, Mysore for their continuous guidance, support and encouragement that made the compilation of my research work possible.

I am highly indebted to Prof. V.R. Rao, former Director-In-charge, Anthropological Survey of India, Dr. Suresh Patil former Head of Office, Southern Regional Centre, Anthropological Survey of India, for awarding me the fellowship, sanctioning the project and providing me an opportunity to carry out the present investigation.

I remain ever thankful to Dr. Sathish, Scientist, SFBR, Texas, USA, for providing me an opportunity to work in DNA Laboratory during his service at Anthropological Survey of India, Southern Regional Centre, Mysore.
I wholeheartedly express my heartfelt thanks and sincere gratitude to Prof. B.S. Vishwanath, Prof. M. Karunakumar, Prof K. Kemparaju, Dr. Gopal Marathe and Dr. K.S. Girish, DoS in Biochemistry, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore for their valuable support given during the course of my research work.

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Venugopal PN for his magnificent help rendered throughout the study.

I owe my gratitude and sincere thanks to Ms. Lakshmi GL, Mr. Abrar Alam, Mrs. Deepti Lokanath, Shri. Suprabha Samantha, Mr. Rajashekar Reddy, Mrs. Smt Padmaja Potluri, Mr. Dhanesh, Mr. Charles, Ms. Niharika, Mr. Mithun, Ms. Savita and all lab mates for their fondness and co-operation for providing a stimulating and fun environment which encouraged me to work hard during all the time of disappointments. The sleepless nights we worked together and for all the fun we have had in the last years.

I will be failing my duties if I do not acknowledge the co-operation extended by the administrative staff of Anthropological Survey of India, Southern Regional Centre Mysore.

I also wish to thank my friends and colleagues Mr. Austin Richard, Dr. Jyothi, Mr. Sowmya Kuruvatti, Mrs. Shubha, and Mrs. Mamatha for their timely help, support and encouragement during my work.

I also wish to thank Mr. Vivek Nambiar, Mr. Yarischamy, Mr. Vivek Hamse, Mr. Punith, Dr. Pushpa Jogihalli, Ms. Navya R., Ms. Sowmya and Mr. Vishak for their encouragement and wishes.

I am thankful to Dr. Dharmappa, Dr. Fayaz Ahmed, Dr. Sunil, Dr. Siddesh, Dr. Dhananjaya, Dr. Hitesh, Dr. Kumar, Dr. Shivakumar, Dr. Usha Nandini and Dr. Prissilla for their good wishes.

Shams-ul-Huda, my awesome friend, who shares my interest in research. You have been a great inspiration in my life. Thanks for always bringing me energy and great memories.

Suneel Narayanavari & Shruti Dasgupta, you have been by my side since my first day in the research. Thanks for all of your valuable advice and for how to survive as a PhD student in the lab. Most important, thank you for a great friendship.
Life wouldn’t be complete without good friends outside of research. Thanks to the always growing “friends group” for time to talk about both science and life; Vinay Nag, Ranjith, Sinoj, Sijin, Bharath, Suhas, Roy and Ritesh have been my best travelling mates of course, and adding Suneel Naayanavari, makes up a strong team for sight-seeing, shopping, dinners and partying all night long. We have shared each other’s failures and successes, and we have travelled to treks, forest census and camping making sure to enjoy ourselves in as many ways as possible.

My sincere thanks also go to my friends Harsha MN, Kishore, Deepak, Aruna, Vinay Narasimhaswamy, Shivarudraswamy, Eric Peter, Mahesh, Thaseen, Manju, Mehboob, Bade Imran, Chote Imran, Karthik, Ravi Sir, Renuka Prasad, Vinay.maya, Vivek RJ, Soma, Sanjay, Chethan, Samith and Pruthvi. I also owe my thanks to those who have been part of my life but I failed to mention.

I sincerely thank Dr.Imran, Mr.Muddukrishna, Mr.Krishna, Mr.Darshan, Dr.Chethan, Mr.Naresh, Mr.Vinay, Mr.Narendra, Mr.Chethan and Prakash for their sustained help rendered during each and every step in the course of the work.

I would like to thank all of the people who participated in the study. Without you this study would not be possible for true inspiration and sharing of knowledge in our great, long-lasting study.

I would like to thank my beloved family for invaluable support and for always having faith in me. I cannot ever depict th e indebtedness to Mother, Mrs. Sharfunnisa Begum, Father, (Late.) Mohammed Iqbal, Sister, Yasmeen and Brother, Irfan, as they have always backed me in every situation. Without their encouragement and moral support this would not have been easy. Also thanks to my favorite niece and nephews, Insha, Aiman, Reem, Leemnaaz, Madiha, Arbaz, Ayan and Aznan. Your generosity and love give me strength every day. My dearest, Aziz Baig thanks for giving me strength to believe in myself.

Finally I am grateful for all of you, those that I mentioned above as well as the ones I forgot, who have been part of making my time as a PhD student the best possible!

(Mohammed Salman)
