ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To Dr. K. Ramakrishna Reddy, I owe a special debt of gratitude, not only for intellectual guidance over the years, but support, institutional and otherwise, and much needed encouragement throughout, to him I offer this work as Gurudakshina: not so much a payment for services rendered, but a giving back of all things learned for the privilege for services rendered, but a giving back of all things learned for the privilege of having learned them.

My list is long, but must begin with my brother Dr. A. G. Venugopal Reddy who helped me to take up this work. I owe him gratitude and also for the heart felt encouragement from time to time which made me to complete this work.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. W. P. Premakumar, professor for his inspiring suggestions throughout the work.

I am also highly thankful to the Head of the Department and other faculty members of Sri Krishnadevaraya Institute of Management – S.K.University - Anantapur for their help and cooperation. I am also thankful to the Library authorities and other officials of S.K.University, Anantapur, especially Dr. N. Ravindranath, Deputy Registrar in extending their support in connection with my research work.

I am happy to place on record my sincere thanks to several scholars, authors and researchers who have been forerunners in the fields of Management and Organizational Development and whose works have enriched my knowledge, shaped my thoughts and helpful my way. I recognize that this work would not have been possible without the benefit of their research and expertise.
Thanks also to the officials of the State Bank of Mysore, Head Office, Bengaluru, in many ways for their invaluable help in compiling this thesis and whole hearted help in completing this work throughout.

Mrs.Vanilatha, my wife and friend encouraged and supported me unstintingly throughout this work. The smiling face of Chi.Y. Shanmuka Shashank Reddy my dearest and lovely son gave me confidence to complete this work. I also thank my sister Smt.A.G.Anuradha Reddy and Miss.A.G.Thanmayi for their support and encouragement for the completion of this work.

Last but not least I express my thanks who helped me directly or indirectly to shape this thesis work to reach the final stage of submission.

Y.RAMALINGA REDDY
