

LIST OF TABLES

Table 1.1: World internet usage and population statistics.....	6
Table 1.2: Classification of Internet banking services.....	14
Table 1.3: World E-Banking Indicators.....	16
Table 1.4: Typical US Internet banking User profile .....	22
Table 1.5: Relative costs of banking transactions.....	24
Table 1.6: Indian Banking at a glance (As at end-March 2006).....	35
Table 1.7: Computerization in Public Sector banks.....	38
Table 1.8: Net Banking services in India.....	44
Table 3.1: Overview of research design.....	84
Table 3.2: Summary of findings of Elicitation Study .....	91
Table 3.3: Research Constructs and Hypotheses .....	99
Table 3.4: Survey questionnaire for collecting personal details...	103
Table 3.5: List items used in the Survey.....	110
Table 4.1: Demographic details of survey participants .....	118
Table 4.2: Sample Details – Industry, Organization Type and Monthly Income.....	119
Table 4.3: Internet Usage Stats .....	123
Table 4.4: Internet browsing activities/capabilities .....	124
Table 4.5: Products and Services bought Online.....	125

Table 4.6: Comfort level of using Computers.....	126
Table 4.7: Comfort level of using Internet .....	126
Table 4.8: Satisfaction level of Internet usage Skills.....	127
Table 4.10: Frequency of Banking Channel Usage .....	131
Table 4.11: Instrument Validation - Questions Answered by the Validities .....	133
Table 4.12: Reliability for construct Perceived Usefulness .....	134
Table 4.13: Reliability for construct Perceived Ease of Use .....	135
Table 4.14: Reliability for construct Consumer Awareness .....	135
Table 4.15: Reliability for construct Consumer Security Concerns .....	136
Table 4.16: Reliability for construct Quality of Facilities .....	136
Table 4.17: Reliability for construct Subjective Norms .....	137
Table 4.18: Reliability for construct Trust &amp; Privacy .....	137
Table 4.19: Cronbach’s Alpha of the Constructs .....	139
Table 4.20: KMO and Bartlett's Test.....	140
Table 4.21: Component Matrix of Factor Analysis.....	142
Table 4.22: Results of Hypotheses Testing (Regression Analysis)	146
Table 4.23: Research Model Testing (Multiple Regression Analysis) .....	153
Table 5.1: Summary of findings of Elicitation Study .....	157
Table 5.2: Results of Hypotheses testing .....	161

LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1.1: Internet users in India.....	2
Figure 1.2: Internet in Urban India .....	3
Figure 1.3: Internet Timeline 1990-006 .....	5
Figure 1.4: Worldwide Internet Users as of September 2007 .....	6
Figure 1.5: World Internet penetration rates by Region .....	7
Figure 1.6: World wide Mobile banking adoption .....	12
Figure 1.7: Mobile banking adoption in Europe.....	12
Figure 1.8: Growth in Internet Banking (Millions).....	15
Figure 1.9: Online banking users and online population .....	17
Figure 1.10: European online banking users by age group (%) .....	18
Figure 1.11: German Internet banking user.....	19
Figure 1.12: Investment pattern of German Banks .....	20
Figure 1.13: Percent of Internet banking users among Internet users in USA.....	21
Figure 1.14: Percentage of Losses That Come from Insider Threats .....	28
Figure 1.15: Unauthorized Use of Computer Systems .....	30
Figure 1.16: Internet banking concerns among UK Customers.....	33
Figure 1.17: Global Vulnerabilities Reported .....	34
Figure 2.1: Theory of Reasoned Action .....	54
Figure 2.2: The Theory of Planned Behaviour .....	57
Figure 2.3: Technology Acceptance Model.....	61

Figure 3.1: Advantages of Internet Banking .....	86
Figure 3.2: Disadvantages of Internet Banking.....	86
Figure 3.3: Other views about Internet Banking (Attitude).....	87
Figure 3.4: Individual/Groups recommending Internet Banking....	87
Figure 3.5: Individual/Groups discouraging Internet Banking .....	88
Figure 3.6: Other views about Internet Banking .....	88
Figure 3.7: Factors enabling Internet Banking.....	89
Figure 3.8: Factors making Internet Banking difficult.....	89
Figure 3.9: Other issues about Internet Banking.....	90
Figure 3.10: Research Model.....	98