ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep and profound sense of gratitude to my Research Supervisor, Prof. K. Nageswara Rao, Professor of Economics, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur for his valuable guidance, constant encouragement and immense help extended to me throughout the course of this study. Without his help it would not have been possible for me to complete this research work. I remain, immensely indebted and wish to place on record my profound regards to him.

I record my profound sense of gratitude to all the Faculty of members of Department of Economics, S.K. University for their constant help and cooperation extended to me during the different stages of this work.

I wish to express my deep sense of appreciation to the staff of the various agencies for providing necessary information relating to my study. I remember the courtesy and cooperation extended to me by the officials and workers of selected spinning mills, whom I contacted for the collection of primary data. It is my pleasure to express my special thanks to the Owners, Managers, and Workers of selected spinning mill units in Andhra Pradesh for providing me with the necessary information to collect the Primary data for the study.
I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to the Library authorities of Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur, Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati. I am deeply indebted to them.

I am grateful to Dr. K. Lakshmi Narayana Reddy, Reader in Economics, Sri Satya Sai Institute of Higher Learning, Prasanthi Nilayam for all the help he has rendered to me during my research work.

I express my gratitude to Sri K. Sivananda Reddy, Correspondent and Prof. K.S.N. Reddy, Principal, K.S.R.M. College of Engineering, Kadapa, for granting me permission to carry out my research work.

I remain highly indebted to my beloved mother for her encouragement and to my better-half Smt. M. Sarojindevi and Children Miss. Sucharitha and Mr. Sai Sujith who are the source of inspiration, perseverance and tolerance to me in the successful completion of this research work.
